Dear Wanda,

Congratulations on being nominated and selected as an award recipient in the APUS Rewards and Recognition (R&R) Program. You are receiving an Integrity Award for those who practice fairness, honesty, and objectivity in serving students, faculty, or staff.

Your nominator Amy Everson and additional supporters The University Awards Committee noted:

The University Awards Reviewers took time out of their busy schedules to read through their assigned nominations, including many pages of documentation and evidence. They evaluated each nomination against a set of criteria and scored each candidate based on their merits. It is no small feat to undertake, and we appreciate all of the reviewers for recognizing the importance of this process to the university community. The reviewers were diligent and thorough in their appraisal and ensured each nomination was given a fair review.

As reviewers, they help contribute to the overall university mission of preparing students for service and leadership in a global society and recognize the efforts of our students in contributing to their home communities and the university community overall.

We appreciate your hard work and dedication to live out our Core Values, to serve students, and support University colleagues. A copy of this memo will be retained in your personnel file.

Sincerely,

Dr. Vernon C. Smith
Provost
