

Remembering the Life Of

Tyler Scott Schmidtbauer was born on November 20, 1991, in Staples, Minnesota the son of Scott Schmidtbauer and Dawn Gorder. Tyler was an adventurous spirit who loved the outdoors which was evident at a young age when he would take his sister Hailey and they would go and trap cray fish and minnows. He had a great love of hunting and fishing and was nicknamed by family as “Daniel Boone”. He shared this passion with his younger cousins. It was also time with his hunting dogs, Raven and Thor. Tyler was good at cooking the game he caught which family and friends enjoyed.

Tyler also enjoyed time while living on his grandparents farm helping take care of animals and at the age of five he rode sheep in the Park Rapids Rodeo and won first place. He will be remembered as a loving person who was known for his great laugh, smile and was a jokester. He was also very protective of his family – especially his sister, Hailey.

Most important to Tyler was his daughter, Cydney. He shared his love of the outdoors with her. Enjoying walks in the woods tracking different animals.

Tyler died on Tuesday, February 26, 2019. He is survived by his mom, Dawn Gorder; dad, Scott Schmidtbauer; daughter, Cydney; grandparents: Karin & David Gorder, Lee & Gayla Schmidtbauer; sister, Hailey Holtti; niece, Maeva Erbe; and several aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

He was preceded in death by his grandma, Pat Schmidtbauer; cousin, Kayden Hansen.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.*

*I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.*

*I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.*

*Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.*

*If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.*

*Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savoured much,*

*Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
