The Family Acknowledgement

During this time of deep sorrow, our hearts are overwhelmed by the outpouring of love and support we have received. The Harris family is profoundly grateful for the love and concern you have so freely shared with us. Your kindness has been a beacon of light in our darkest hours. We cherish the memory of our beloved Jessie and find solace in the comfort you have brought us.

It is through the grace of God and the unwavering support of friends like you that we find the courage to face the days ahead. With overflowing hearts, we express our deepest gratitude for your fervent prayers, warm hugs, sincere handshakes, heartfelt visits, and encouraging words. Your love has given us strength, and every act of kindness and sympathy has touched us deeply.

A special thanks to the dedicated MUSC medical staff and associates, and the compassionate team at Collins Funeral Home. Your care and support have been invaluable to us during this time. Words cannot fully convey our appreciation. May God bless you all and grant you peace.

With heartfelt gratitude,
- The Harris Family

God saw she was getting tired
And a cure was not to be,
So He put His arms around her
And whispered, "Come with Me."

With tearful eyes we watched her suffer
And saw her fade away,
Although we loved her dearly,
We could not make her stay.
A golden heart stopped beating,
Hard working hands to rest,
God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

LIFE'S REFLECTIONS OF JESSIE Lee HARRIS

Jessie Lee Harris, born on February 28, 1930, in Kershaw County, SC, to the late Eddie and Racheal Harris, passed away peacefully on June 1, 2024, at MUSC Kershaw Health Medical Center. Jessie was educated in the Kershaw County public school system. She accepted Jesus Christ as her personal Lord and Savior at a young age, as a member of Ebenezer A.M.E Zion Church. She was a cherished member of White Oak Baptist Church, where she served as senior choir leader, Sunday school superintendent, member of the missionary ministry, and one of the mothers of the church. Jessie was known for her warm, kind spirit and her unwavering faith in God.

Jessie was predeceased by her beloved husband, Frank Harris Sr., and siblings Creola Shropshire, Thomas Lee Harris, Rufus Harris, Louise Jackson, Sarah Foster, Nancy Cooper, Edward Harris, and Margaret Bufford, who are now reunited in peace.

Throughout her life, Jessie demonstrated remarkable skills in landscaping, painting, carpentry, auto detailing, and homecare, with her famous coconut cake being a highlight of her culinary talents. Jessie made a lasting impact on everyone she met and will be fondly remembered for her creativity, dedication, and loving nature.

She is survived by her three sons: Frank Harris Jr. (Suncha) of Dayton, OH; Grover Harris (Kimberly) of Camden, SC; and Stanley Harris (Erica) of San Pedro, CA; and her two daughters: Rosezenia Harris-Belk of Lancaster, SC, and Catherine Harris of Laurel, MD. Jessie will be forever cherished by her eight grandchildren/two step grandchildren and four great grandchildren/eleven step great-grandchildren, as well as siblings brothers, Simon Harris of Heath Springs, SC, and English (Roy) Harris (Helen) of Columbia, SC, and sisters, Sylvesta Cook of Teaneck, NJ, and Melvina Rutledge (Herbert) of Heath Springs, SC, along with her two brothers-in-law, Levy Harris (Lucille) of Wake Forest, NC, and Artis Cliff Bufford of Kershaw, SC, and a sister-in-law, Allie Harris of Camden, SC. Additionally, Jessie leaves behind a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, relatives and friends who will cherish her memory.

psalm 23

- The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.
- 2 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.
- 3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
- 4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.
- 5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.
- 6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.
