THE LIFE STORY OF

Willis Henry Floyd Jr.

Willis Henry Floyd Jr. was born on October 15, 1938, in Savannah, Georgia to the union of Willie Floyd Sr. and Virginia Floyd. Willis was loved by all. No stranger was known to him.

He attended and was a member of The First Bryant Baptist Church. Additionally, he attended Chatham County Public Schools and graduated from Alfred Ely Beach High School. Shortly after graduating, he left home and gleefully served in the military with passion and great leadership. As an avid traveler, he relocated in Las Vegas, Nevada, which he fondly adored and considered it his second home.

The greatest accomplishment that Willis attained was being involved in the community and politics. Moreover, he was considered a staple in the local and state arenas, where he was greatly respected, known for his generosity, and love and support of his family.

God found cause to call Willis Home to be with his Heavenly Father, on January 27, 2024. Although he will be truly missed by many near and far, his memories will live on forever.

Willis was preceded in death by both of his parents, Willie Floyd Sr. and Virginia Floyd, and brother Charles Gaston.

Willis Henry Floyd Jr. leaves to mourn and cherish his memory, his sister, Louise Virginia Williams, God Daughter, Tracey Lewis; Special Friend, Dr. Mamie Divers, and a host of nieces, great nieces, nephews as well as loving relatives, and friends.

“Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted”
Matthew 5:4

Acknowledgements

Perhaps you sent a lovely card,
Or sat quietly in a chair,
Perhaps you sent a floral piece,
If so, we seen it there.
Perhaps you spoke the kindest words,
As any friend could say,
Perhaps you said a prayer or two,
This gave us strength to get through.
Perhaps you were not there at all,
Just thought of us that day,
Whatever you did to console our hearts,
We thank you so much, whatever the part.
