

Leslie Regina Johnson, of Hugh Springs, Texas, passed away on July 12, 2023, at her home.

Leslie was born on March 5, 1950, in Raymondville, Texas to Lester Thomas Craft and Juanita New. She attended Berwick High School in Louisiana and later college in Ada, Oklahoma. She was a member of Beta Sigma Phi sorority where she loved her sisters dearly. Leslie owned the Cappuccino and Sweet shop in Greenville, TX, where she was affectionately known as the "hat lady". She loved all of her customers and could not wait to serve them. For more than 10 years, Leslie helped her husband Mike travelling and adjusting for insurance. Leslie married in Garland, Texas in July of 1998 and lived in Greenville for 20 years until she moved to Hugh Springs in 2020 to enjoy the green solitude of nature in her "happy place".

Leslie is survived by her husband, Michael Dean Johnson of Hugh Springs, TX, and son Christopher Craft of Dallas, TX.

Leslie was preceded in death by her parents, Lester Thomas Craft and Juanita New, and brother Eric Craft.

Do Not Stand at my Grave & Weep

In Loving Memory of...

Do not stand at my grave and weep.

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow.

I am the diamond glints on snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain.

I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the mornings hush,

I am the swift, uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry.

I am not there, I did not die.
