

IN LOVING MEMORY

*Of all the special gifts in life however great or small
To have had you as our Nana was the sweetest gift of all.
You held my hand when I was small,
And now I search for you in it all—*

*In the quiet familiar sacred place,
I remember the way you'd laugh so free,
Like you were pouring your love into me.
The way your arms felt like home,
Even when I stood tall and grown.
You were more than a grandmother; you were my guide,
With every hug, you were right by my side*

*I still feel your presence every day,
In the things I do, in the words I say.
But oh, how I miss your voice, your smile,
The way you made everything feel worthwhile.
Oh and your food was guaranteed to change everyone's mood.*

*On sleep overnights, You'd rise early, your heart shining bright,
Dressed for church, a soul full of light.
You taught us to gather, to pray and to sing,
Instilling great faith in the hope that it brings.
With melodies made up in the moment's embrace,
You showed us that joy is a sacred space.*

*There's an emptiness now that you're not here,
But in my heart, you'll always be near.
I carry you with me in all I do,
A piece of me forever tied to you.*

*Rest easy, Nana, until we meet again,
Your love, your light, will never end.*

Ethel was born the second of five children to the union of Charley and Allie Holliday in Cedartown, Georgia. She attended Cedarhill Elementary and Cedarhill High School. She and her family relocated to Columbus, Ohio in 1968. She was employed at OSU University Hospital in the Dietary Department and later retired from the Medical Records Department. Ethel gave her life to her Lord and Savior at an early age; she attended Cedarhill Baptist Church, Cedartown GA, and later joined First Church of God in Columbus, Ohio. She was a member of the Joy Heirs (now known as L.I.F.T.S.) until her illness prevented her attendance.
