

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God has laid you see.
I took His hand when I heard him call
I turned my back and left it all.

I could not stay another day
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way
I found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Ronald Lee Hausman was born, July 15, 1952 to Lloyd and Lucille (Stoller) Hausman at Yankton, SD. Following graduation from Yankton High School, Ron joined the Marines, serving from 1970-1974. When he returned home, he worked for several years on the family mink farm east of Yankton, until its closure. Ron then went to work for Yankton Redi-Mix, eventually completing a 15-year career with Knife River in the ready-mix concrete division, retiring in 2019. Each summer, during River Boat Days, you could count on enjoying teriyaki food at his booth.

Ron was a kind, loving father, grandfather and friend. He enjoyed golfing and fishing.

Ron, age 71, died Friday, October 13, 2023 at his home in Yankton.

Ronald is survived by significant other, Carla Bruder of Yankton; daughters, Autumn Hausman of San Diego, CA and Christine (Nick) Shudak of Yankton; grandkids, Cooper, Sophia, Noah, Olivia and Isa of Yankton; sister, Betty Lou Davenport of Las Vegas, NE; mother of his daughters, Deb Hausman of Yankton; brother-in-law, Roger Marken of Bridgewater and 12 nieces and nephews.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Lloyd and Lucy Hausman; brother, Gerald (Dixie) Hausman; sister, Connie Marken; nephew, TJ Hausman and brother-in-law, Deb Davenport.
