

In Remembrance

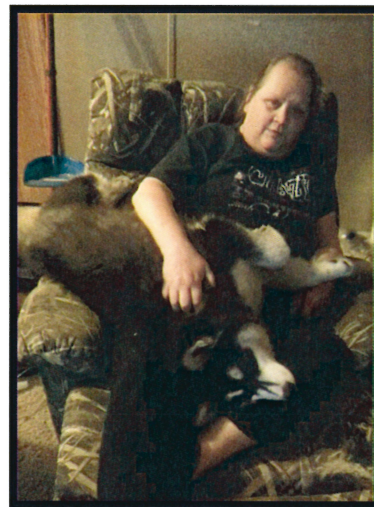

Sue Ann Jennings was born January 17, 1967, in Anna, Illinois, the daughter of Jerry and Louise (Smith) Dunkin. She married Don Jennings December 17, 1993, in Fort Dodge, Iowa. They made their home in Fort Dodge before moving to Minnesota in 1998, where Sue worked on a turkey farm. They lived in Arkansas from 2000 to 2008, when they moved to Iowa, living in Craig, Iowa the last number of years. Sue worked in numerous nursing homes as a CNA and was a housewife and Mom.

She loved her kids very much and also her 3 granddaughters. Sue liked to fish and help Don make deer jerky. She enjoyed going to dirt tracks and watching races. Sue passed away on Saturday, June 18, 2022 at Correctionville Specialty Care in Correctionville, Iowa at the age of 55 years.

Sue is survived by her parents, Jerry and Louise Dunkin of Elk Creek, Missouri; husband Don, Sr. of Craig, Iowa; 5 children, Jessica and Nick Breeding of Alpena, Arkansas, Cynthia Jennings of Carroll, Iowa. Donald, Jr. of Ireton, Iowa, Michael of Craig, Iowa, and Joshua of Spencer, Iowa; 3 granddaughters; 2 brothers, Jeff and Dana Dunkin of Coal City, Illinois and Bobbie and Deann Dunkin of Springfield, Missouri; and Don's siblings, Vince and Kelly Jennings of Farnhamville, Iowa and Ray Jennings, Jr. of Savannah, Georgia.

Sue was preceded in death by her grandpa and grandma Dunkin and uncle, Lee Dunkin.
