Afterglow

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.

*I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.*

*I'd like to leave an echo
whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
and bright and sunny days.*

*I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
to dry before the sun;*

Of happy memories that I leave when life is done.

~ by Helen Lowrie Marshall

Acknowledgement

Perhaps you sent a lovely card or sat quietly in a chair.

Perhaps you sent a funeral spray, if so, we saw it there.

Perhaps you spoke the kindest words, that anyone could say.

Perhaps you were not there at all, just thought of us that day.

Whatever you did to console our hearts, we thank you so much

whatever the part. The Family of Kimine C. Bessard

Growing up

Kimine C. Bessard was born April 16th, 1991 in Denver, CO to Shanda C. Bessard. He was raised by grandparents Johnny and Ursula Hines. Kimine was the first born of 3 siblings Terry Morgan (brother) Deaujanae C Banks (Sister).

As a child Kimine had a lot of adventures outside whether that's going to the park, to the local pools, fishing and family gatherings. Growing up in a tight knitted family, sleep overs at Aunties house with all the cousins was always fun! You could always find Kimine at the Glenarm Recreation Center with his brother, sister, and cousins. Kimine found interest and love for basketball at a young age, but all around he was an all-American star. Kimine competed in many basketball tournaments. He won one of the 'And One' tournament that was sponsored by the Denver Nuggets where he met many players such as Carmelo Anthony, Marcus Camby, Chauncey Billups and Kenyon Martin.

Church

Kimine grew up attending Cleaves Memorial CME Church where he sang in the choir & attended youth group and youth Sunday School with his siblings and cousins & He would often visit End Time Christian Center as a secondary church home.

Education

Kimine attended Denver Public Schools and completed his highest level of studies at Hope Online Brand-New Start where he acquired many friends and associates.

Career

Kimine kept himself busy working many different jobs in the Denver metro area showing his drive to pick up different skills. Although life got hectic for Kimine he never stopped pressing forward.

Kimine had a big heart for family. He was the one you could turn to and always get a good laugh or a big hug, he always kept a big smile on his face no matter the situation.

Kimine never married but loved the ladies, along the way he met a friend in love (**Dawne Rogan**). Although Kimine didn't have children of his own, he loved his nephews (**TJ and Jordan**) and shared his love with many cousins and friends. Kimine also loved his Aunt and Uncles and all the men that played a role in his life.

If you knew Kimine you knew just how very protective he was of his family. Kimine always tried to cover or shield the family from exposure, injury, damage or even destruction he was always on guard.

Kimine passed on June 26th, 2023 in Downtown Denver. He is preceded in death by his mother, Shanda C. Bessard; grandparents Johnny and Ursula Hines and uncle, Leland L. Hines.

He is survived by his brother, Terry Morgan and sister, Deaujanae C Banks and a host of extended relatives and friends.
