Education Fair

The Houston International Seventh-day Adventist Church was excited to host an Education Fair Day, on January 11, for the local Adventist Schools and Universities. The Sabbath began with a message by Kristen Buford. She challenged us to align our vision of education with God's vision, reminding us that Adventist Education meets the academic, physical, social and spiritual growth of our children, teaching them to serve the Lord and to know Jesus, our Creator and Savior. In the afternoon, parents and children had the opportunity to talk to the principals of the local schools, and Carol Campbell, the Southwestern Union Education representative. Mrs. Buford, a teacher, gave an assignment. She encouraged each family to start a daily family worship in their homes to get to know Jesus better! We encourage each parent and child who reads this newsletter to also start a family worship in their homes. Make Jesus the center of your homes.-Marla Altemus

"Love is patient and kind. Love is not jealous or boastful or proud or rude. It does not demand its own way. It is not irritable, and it keeps no record of being wronged."

KACS Preschool Program

The 'T' in C.R.E.A.T.I.O.N. stands for Trust. After hearing "The Good Samaritan" story, PreK practiced being kind by passing out water bottles & raisins to other classrooms. They said, "It's cool to be kind!"

K-1st BEAR'S DEN

In continuing the study of the Human Body, students learned how their muscles work. To demonstrate, they picked up cotton balls: first with their hands, then with their feet! Everyone had fun using the muscles in their toes.

Mrs. Rolle's Report

In grades 4 and 5 we have been learning about different forms of poetry in our language arts class. Each student has the opportunity to enter in the 23rd Annual National Student Poetry Contest. Students from all over America will be participating and we are excited to read all of the poems produced by our Monarchs! Please enjoy this poem written by Zion Henry-5th.

"Emotions"

My face was blue
I did not know what to do
It was strange
My life had no range.

I was angry, flaming
It was raining all over me
Some people were blind to even notice me
So why am I here?

I'm just Sitting in my chair writing this poem to show them I'm really here
The Almighty God showed me the way
He sent down His son Jesus to pay the price for us.

God is the one I trust so don't fuss
God is going to guide us
He is the Shepherd, we are His sheep
Remember the Sabbath Day, which is what we need to keep.

5-8 Express Thoughts!

100 Days of School

On January 24, students celebrated 100 days of learning. They counted 100 items they brought, wrote about having 100 of something, and listened to a poem of 100 words. Students enjoyed Mekhi's train (with 100 tracks!). They also completed the sentence starter: "In the 1st 100 days of school, I learned. . ." Check out the finished sentences on the hall bulletin board.
