

He is Gone

You can shed tears that he is gone
 Or you can smile because he has lived
 You can close your eyes and pray that he will come back
 Or you can open your eyes and see all that he has left
 Your heart can be empty because you can't see him
 Or you can be full of the love that you shared
 You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday
 Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday
 You can remember him and only that he is gone
 Or you can cherish his memory and let it live on
 You can cry and close your mind,
 be empty and turn your back
 Or you can do what he would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

In Loving Memory

Cecil W. Johnson

February 20, 1942 ~ August 9, 2024

MILLETTE

Cecil Wayne Johnson was born February 20, 1942 at Akra, ND to Bennie and Sigurdur Kristine Johnson. He grew up and attended country school near Hallson and graduated from Mountain High School. In 1964, he served in the U.S. Army at Fort Leonard Wood and Fort Riley before his service in Vietnam. He was discharged from the service in 1966.

On September 27, 1969, he married Gail Ralston at Hensel, ND. Cecil worked as a carpenter for Roy Johnson, Nupdal and Abrahamson Construction. He enjoyed gardening, hunting, fishing, and baking. He was a former Commander of the Mountain American Legion.

He is survived by his children: Wendy Brusseau, Walhalla, ND, Wayne (Shari) Johnson and Tami Johnson all of Cavalier, ND, grandchildren: Dalton, Dylan, and Jayde Brusseau, Tanner (Madison), Brayden, and Jasmyn (fiancé, Gordon Emslie).

Preceding him in death were his parents, wife, Gail, and brothers, Dennis and Eugene Johnson.

Cecil W. Johnson, 82, of Cavalier, North Dakota, passed away on Friday, August 9, 2024, at Wedgewood Manor in Cavalier.
