Summary of Life

Ms. Georgia Mae Mangham Clarke was born on September 6, 1957 in Peach County to the late Willie Mangham Sr. and Mattie Wil Mangham. She attended Crawford County Public School. At a young age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior and joined Springhill C.M.E. Church of Byron, Georgia. She worked many jobs, but chose horticulture for years at Ware Green House in Fort Valley.

She was known as “Grandma” to many and truly loved her grandkids. Her dog Bubbles was the joy of her life If Bubbles couldn’t go then she couldn’t go.

On Wednesday, March 2, 2022, while a patient at Houston Medical Center, her Heavenly Father called her home from labor to reward.

She was preceded in death by her mother Mattie Will Mangham and her father Mangham Sr, her brothers Willie Lee Mangham, Robert Lee Mangham, Bobby Lee Mangham, J.C. Mangham, and her sister Sharon Denise Mangham all of Crawford County.

She leaves to cherish her memories two daughters; Belinda (Patrick) Brown and Pamela (Awris) Smith; two sons Daniel Clark of Macon, GA and Donald Clark of Warner Robins, GA; a bonus son Dee Morgan of Fort Valley, GA; a bonus daughter Stephanie Robinson of St. Louis, Missouri; 3 sisters Lizzie (Elmer) Hudson, Rosa Mangham, and Lillian Mangham; a brother Bernard Mangham; 6 grandchildren: Daniel Patrick Clark, Pierre Falling Jr., Marquis Brown, Nicholas Clark, Justin Clark, and Deja Clark. She had a host of nieces and nephews that she love dearly.

Life is Not The Same Without You

The sun still rises in the east
And darkness falls at night
But nothing now seems quite the same
Each day is not as bright

The birds still sing, the flowers grow
The breeze still whispers, too
But it will never, ever be
The same world without you

It’s so sad that you had to go
Your leaving caused such pain
But you were so very special
And earth’s loss is heaven’s gain.
