To My Beautiful Bad Girl, My Crystal

This is something that was not in the cards for me. I never thought I'd be writing a letter like this. You will forever be my baby. Loving you was easy. I guess God had other plans for you. So rest up baby and kiss your brother Lamar for me. Until we meet again...

Mommy

Dear Crystal,

I want to cherish the memories that we had together. This is so very hard because I'll never hear you call me Aunthy, the only way you could. You'll be forever in my heart.

Love, Aunt Yvonne

To My Firecracker

From the moment you came into my life, I always considered you my beautiful piece of work! Thank you for always being you!! Heaven has a new warrior and her name is Vicious! I love you Crystal and you will be missed more than you know!!!

Love, Your Auntie Jo

To My Fraggle Rock

A special name that I called you from the love in my heart for you. Remember all the good times we shared. Yes we went through our ups and downs but the love you showed me as a daughter we'll never be forgotten. No goodbyes but love you later.

Dad "Reddoggg" as you would put it!

Someone is Missing

Let this be a loving reminder that someone is missing today! Someone our hearts still hold on to as we travel along life's way. Someone who made life special for all those who gather here. Someone who won't be forgotten but cherished from year to year. And now as we pause to remember Let us all fondly recall How dearly we all loved her And oh how she loved us all.

Your spirit will always be with me.
Love, Grandmom/your Mom Mom

Welcome to the Colorful Beautiful Life of CRYSTAL CHANTEL BROWN

Crystal was born February 26, 1985 to Margazeta Sharon Scott-Cosby and Robert Thomas Brown Jr. She was the youngest of our three children and the only girl.

She came into this world like a firecracker! She had an attitude like no other.

Crystal was the type that would give you the shirt off her back.

Crystal had many talents! She loved to do hair and truly loved dancing. She was on many drill teams until she was 17 years of age.

Crystal's true passion was her writing. She started writing rhymes at the tender age of 12. Between her rhymes and poetry, our Crystal always had something powerful to say.

Crystal loved all types of music from old school R&B to hip hop. I remember when Mace was her favorite artist and we had to hear Mace all day!

Once Crystal had become a beautiful young woman she began working at Go Internet, EPPIS, Dougs Security to later grow a passion to follow me in my footsteps and become a health careworker and continued to show why so many love her her! And something I'm very proud to have shared with my baby girl.

Crystal also loved to travel. Even though Philly was her home, it took nothing for her to get up and go Crystal even moved to Louisiana to help take care of her grandmother, again showing her true beauty.

Crystal was and always will be a beautiful work of art like a flower blooms in spring, like the beautiful black rose she was.

Crystal could light up a room whenever she appeared like poetry in motion. Crystal made being a bad girl, Vicious.

Crystal leaves to mourn her mother, Margazetta S. Cosby; father, Robert T. Brown, Jr.; stepfather, Lyndon Cosby; brother, Robert Brown, III; two sisters, Keyana and Kiah, one sister-in-law, Jada Brown; grandmother, Sandra Lewis; grandfather, Robert Lewis and her oldest brother, Lamar Brown who preceded her in death; her Godson, Jerome Bishop, Jr. and God daughter, Mishaylah Bracey; a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, family and friends.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
