

TRIBUTES OF LOVE

Linda and Millacynt did EVERYTHING together from wearing matching outfits, having designated movie nights, and traveling the world. Millacynt was Linda's pride and joy. One of Millacynt's favorite memories was when Millacynt was turning six years old. Millacynt was so blessed to have had a birthday party every year. Well, this particular year was different. Millacynt had been disobedient and Linda told her she was not going to have a sixth birthday party. Poor little Millacynt could not wrap her head around not having a sixth birthday party. So, she asked her Mom "How will I turn six, without a birthday party." Linda chuckled and said "You will see." and Millacynt did in fact turn six and life went on. With each passing birthday the two went to many Turkey Day Classics at her Alma Mater Tuskegee University where they both enjoyed the parade and football game, but most of all Halftime. Anybody who went to an HBCU knows it is all about the Halftime show. Linda would scream and shout the Tuskegee pride song and so would Millacynt alongside her. This inspired Millacynt to follow in her foot-steps at an HBCU, Miles College, Tuskegee's rival team. Linda was so excited and packed Millacynt up for college and drove her 12 and a half-hour from Denver, CO to Birmingham, AL. However, when they got there Millacynt refused to get out of the car. So, like any loving Mother would, she stepped out the car, walked up to the dorm, and introduced herself to the dorm mom and the kids sitting on the steps. My mom came back to the car with everyone and we braved the campus together. Millacynt admired her Mom so much. That moment taught her to be confident and brave and most of all BOLD in every life decision.

Love your baby girl, jelly-bean and ladybug.

Our Dearest Linda,

Who knew that Saturday morning in August 1998, we would still be reading books 24 years later? What started out as a group of African American women with a passion for reading would develop into a Sisterhood. Our first meeting was at Le Peeps Restaurant on York Street across the street from City Park (currently known as Syrup's). These monthly sessions were hosted by each member. We often invited local authors to join the discussions of the books. We visited other places even our homes. We all rejoiced when you became a mother and Millacynt came into our lives. You were our fashionista, our hair change artist, our in-house comedian, and our example for a great loving friend.

Our Monthly meetings will not be same without your witty responses and jokes you often told. Linda you were one of the original members and served as our Treasurer for many years. You were often referred to as our "Jetsetter" because you loved to travel. We saw you Linda as a Godly woman and your love for others was evident in the way you lived. We are more than a book club we share a Sisterhood. We have shared some good times and have supported each other through marriages, births, graduations, retirements, sickness, and death. Looking back on our yearly events as the Mother's Day trip to Glenwood Springs and the infamous Bed and Breakfast, the many Christmas Parties, the theater performances, and other events we all enjoyed together, there is a bright and constant picture in our minds of your smile and laughter. Those memories are now priceless. Until we meet again rest easy our beautiful Sister.

Circle of Sisters Book Club

My Dearest Friend Linda, We met in September of 1981 when I was just 17 years old when I moved here from New Mexico. We were neighbors in Glendale Colorado, where we lived a door down for each other. We casually spoke but immediately became friendly with each other. We could sit with each other for hours and not say a word and there wasn't any awkwardness. One of the first times I cooked for her. I had made us pork chops which may have been a mistake because I only used salt and pepper and fried them and she said they were so boring and was shocked how I cooked. She was a southern girl, and I was from New Mexico, our cooking styles were different, but she still ate them, she was always so gracious she even taught me how to cook! Our friendship grew to where we depended on each other, our love grew, we were both Maid of Honors at each other's weddings. I would go with her when she went to Alabama to visit her family, we vacationed together and she was so important to me that I named her the God Mother of my daughter, Renee. Linda introduced me to my husband Chuck Williams, which I am forever grateful for. My best friend, my friend soul mate, my confidant, my dearest friend. I will forever miss you I am at a loss without you and Chuck. You will be eternally missed. Love Always. Anita

Precious Memories

As beautiful as a rose to see was her life. She lived so gracefully. She made things precious by her touch; her selfless love lives on in each of us. The petals of her life fell one by one, each a gift of her heart till there were none. Yet her radiance blooms once again in fields of glory with no end.

Linda Jane Boldin was born on September 28, 1955, in her hometown of Montgomery, Alabama, to her parents, Richard N. Boldin Jr. and Millie Ann Sers Boldin. She was the second-born child after her brother, Larry N. Boldin. Linda attended Mrs. Chilsolm Private School until the 4th grade. She attended Booker T. Washington Secondary School for 5th-10th grade and Sidney Lanier High School from 11th-12th grade, and graduated in 1973. As a child, Linda always had a captivating personality. She affectionately started calling her Granddaddy Boldin "Kee-Kee" while asking him for some candy that she was not supposed to have. She looked up at him and said, "Kee-Kee, please," and he gave her everything she asked for. From that day on, everyone in the family started calling him "Kee-Kee." One of the proudest moments for Linda's family, especially for her mom, was when Linda made the band becoming a member of the Booker T. Washington "Yellow Jackets" marching 100.

After completing high school, Linda went on to further her education at Tuskegee University, where she earned a Bachelor of Science in Dietetics in 1977. As the first to graduate from college in her family, she blazed a trail for her daughter, Millacynt, and her nieces, Felita, LeQuanda, and Candace, to follow. Linda fully emersed herself in college life while at Tuskegee University. She was a member of the Tuskegee marching band and pledged Delta Sigma Theta. It was there that her passion for cooking and adventure grew. Her passion for cooking was initially cultivated by her grandfather, Kee-Kee.

Linda relocated to Denver, Colorado in 1978, determined, confident, and shining bright. She was hard-working, friendly, loving, and genuine. Linda began her career in Denver, working at University Hospital in food services. She also accepted a position as Manager at Wendy's for a brief time. She was eventually hired by the State of Colorado in 1980, assigned to the Gilliam Youth Service Center. She was the Director of Food Service. She impacted the lives of many children and families. She was an ardent advocate for those that were less fortunate and just needed to see a bright smile and have at least one person in their corner. She was absolutely that for so many young men and women. She embodied the motto of Gilliam "Even if you affect one child, it is worth it." She retired after thirty-five years of dedicated service.

After retiring from the State of Colorado, Linda began her work journey with United Airlines in 2016. She enjoyed working for United Airlines as it gave her the ability to visit her family, travel the world, and meet celebrities. Linda stayed with a travel bag that was packed and ready to go. While at United, serving as a Customer Service Agent, she never met a stranger and was the epitome of professionalism; so much so that she never called in or missed a day of work and was awarded an extra merit point. After six years of a rewarding career filled with adventure with United, Linda retired from United on March 1, 2022.

The family of Linda Jane Boldin

Of all the things that Linda achieved in her life, the thing she cherished the most was being a mom. Millacynt Jane Boldin, who she named after her mother, Millie Ann Boldin, changed Linda's life forever. Linda and Millacynt did EVERYTHING together, from wearing matching outfits, having designated movie nights, and traveling the world. Millacynt was Linda's pride and joy. As a mother, Linda provided Millacynt with a solid foundation and loving environment that enabled her to become an amazing woman. Motherhood came natural to Linda, and she was a wonderful mother. She made sure that Millacynt was prepared for life's journey. As a result of Linda's guidance, encouragement, and nurturing, Millacynt graduated from Miles College and recently married her college sweetheart, Tre Mason. Professionally, Millacynt was inspired to follow in her mother's footsteps and work for United Airlines as a Customer Service Agent.

Linda was an extraordinary friend, cousin, aunt, niece, sister, daughter, and mother. Linda believed in gathering with family and friends and the importance of staying connected. Linda's natural love for people meant that once you met her, you had a lifelong friend. Whether Linda was traveling to see family or meeting with a neighbor next door, she would find her way into your kitchen, and before you knew it, she would be serving you, never mind that she was the guest. To be a friend to Linda was to be a part of her family. Linda had several close friends that were blessed enough to become her sisters and Millacynt's aunts.

Linda J. Boldin lived a life that reflected her strong relationship with God and faith in him to guide and direct her life. At an early age, she accepted Jesus Christ as her Lord and Savior and was baptized at Beulah Baptist Church in Montgomery, Alabama. As she grew and matured in the Lord, she was not just a hearer of the word but also a doer, serving in several ministries throughout her life. Linda and her daughter, Millacynt, joined the King Baptist Church family in 2000. She did not waste any time putting her talent for cooking and serving others to use. As a dedicated member of King Baptist Church, Linda served on the Hospitality Committee, where she often provided the necessary food and supplies to support the ministry and was also a member of the Usher Board. With her firm belief in raising a child up in the way they should go, she ensured that her daughter, Millacynt, was also actively involved in ministry.

Linda's ministry extended beyond the church walls. She was an active member of her community. She was one of the founding members of the Circle of Sisters Book Club, which started in 1998. Through this organization, she was able to touch the lives of women throughout the community through fellowship and sisterhood. She was also a part of the National Association for Blacks in Criminal Justice (NABCJ). Her infectious laughter, smile, and grace were an inspiration to everyone around her. Linda would want us all to celebrate her life and not mourn her passing. She will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this Queen of a Woman. To know Linda was to love her.

On March 5, 2022, Linda J. Boldin passed away in Denver, Colorado. Those left to cherish her memory and mourn her loss include her loving daughter, Millacynt J. (Tre') Boldin-Mason of Deltona, Florida; her brother, Pastor Larry N. Boldin (the late First Lady Jenett Boldin) of Mary Esther, Florida; 3 nieces, Felita N. Boldin of Aldie, Virginia, LeQuanda L (Glenroy) Cole of Las Vegas, Nevada and Candace L. Boldin of Ft. Walton Beach, Florida; 3 great-nephews, Elijah N. Boldin of Aldie, Virginia; Boldin C. Cole and Jensen A. Cole both of Las Vegas, Nevada; 2 aunts, Annie Pearl Edwards of Brooklyn, New York and Jessica (Ronald) Collins of Montgomery, Alabama; 1 uncle, John Bolin of Washington, DC; and a host of cousins, other relatives, and many friends.
