Her STORY

Life: On Friday, April 19, 2024 God called home our beloved mother Kamell Dixon, affectionately known as Kennie.

Life Journey: Kamell was blessed with life on April 29th, 1946 in Battleboro, North Carolina the oldest of 3 daughters born to Julius and Berth McRae. Kamell was the oldest sister to Catherine (preceded in death) and Deloris. In 1970, Willie Frank Dixon Sr. proposed Holy Matrimony and to their union 3 children were born: Kimberly, Monica and Willie Frank Dixon Jr.

Education and Employment: Kennie, as she was affectionally named by her uncle Edward King Jr was educated in the Edgecomb County Public School System. After school Kennie relocated to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania where she worked in various fields of employment. Her passions were cooking, music (she could do a mean BOP), and baseball (she loved the Philadelphia Phillies).

Legacy: Kamell leaves to cherish her precious memories, children, Kimberly Todd, Monica Spriggs and Willie Frank Dixon Jr. (Tracey Ruffin); mother, Bertha King; sister, Deloris McCrae; aunt, Verda Waldo; 13 grandchildren, Mariah, Mossett, Matthew, Malachi, Keion, Kamell, Kourdell, Fatijah, Tyshaun, Tamika, Sheena, Enoshja, and Isaiah; and a host of great grandchildren-her great loves; in laws, Michael, Dennis & Janie, Ronnie, and Kenneth Allen of Utica, New York and her entire Utica, New York family; nephew, William; nieces, Sharonda, Yolanda, Crystal, and Aretha Walker of Philadelphia, PA; Leroy Walker of Philadelphia, PA and the entire King Family; special cousin/brother, Michael King; God Children, Miguel & Bobby Colon and Debra Zayas who assisted in her daily care.

Those who preceded her in death: her husband, Willie Frank Dixon Sr., father, Julius McRae; in-laws, Milton & Mary Allen; sister, Catherine Walker; sister-in-law, Carolyn Allen; brothers-in-law, Milton Allen Jr., Willie Moore; and nephew, Lionel Walker.

Kamell (Kennie) will be missed by a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends who will truly miss her.

Lovingly Submitted,

The Family
