Bill
Ludolph

a man who faithfully
and humbly served

KIND WORDS ABOUT BILL

“a faithful man of God”

“Bill’s life is memorable because he touched so many others without recognition and lightened their burdens in so many ways.”

“Bill is a wonderful example of what a true Culture of Excellence is all about at Meridian Manor.”

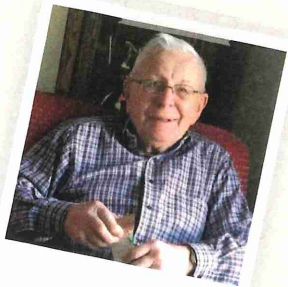

“Bill treated each and every customer at Scherer Bros. as if they were the most important person who ever walked in the door ... customers would wait in line just so they could visit with him and be touched by his humor, expertise, and kindness.”

“Bill braved rain, snow, sleet and extreme temperatures to maintain the Holy Name of Jesus cemetery and prepare the grave sites”

a man who has done ordinary things
extraordinarily well

“Bill has been a pillar of the Holy Name of Jesus parish and cemetery for decades”

“For many after retirement, they don’t know what to do with themselves to keep busy, but Bill gravitated to a path of service to others.”
