Words of Reflection

~ Maurice Lamont Brown ~

April 27, 1974 – September 26, 2022

Maurice “MB” Lamont Brown was born on April 27, 1974, and from the look of things, it must have been a “Good Day”, before Cube declared his. Because his mother Edwina Brown gave birth to a wonderful soul that could warm the spirit of a Polar Bear, well at least that’s a sense of the love those related to him or even those who befriended him were going to receive.

Maurice went about life being compassionate and loving from every bit of his soul. MB had struggles in life but he did not let his shortcomings depict his character. Born again at the age of 15, he knew his calling was to spread the Gospel. And to add to that, it was a bit soothing not to mention he was very easy on the eyes of those who adored him which made it easy to receive his message. His every breath was to lift your spirits from whatever you were going through, without any gripe about the torment he was enduring, too. This was a man that was full of sincere love for all of his family and he was always ready to pray for anyone that needed it.

He never lost his faith in the Lord, so throw the C’s up for Christ of course. MB was always the life of the party because he was not only fearless about being himself and around his people or should I say “The Hood”!!!

Maurice had a best-friend vibe and he always could make you laugh. He also loved cooking, and dancing, which shows that he valued the simple things in life...Making lemonade out of lemons when it came to life, MB must have had the recipe to James Lemonade if that was the case. Always walking and humming a melodic tune.

Maurice Brown was loved and he shared a lot of love throughout his life despite the up’s and down’s, he kept his Faith in God and made sure he kept your head up as well.

MB was a man of many trades, but the one he had a niche for which would become his all time favorite, and that was when he learned the process for asphalt pavement installation with McConnell and Associates, which then led him to create his own company known as Super Cool Pavement.

Maurice Brown met and married his first wife, Vernisa Friends Jordan and through their union five children were born to this union.

Maurice (MB) departed this life on September 26, 2022. His mother, Edwina Brown Wallace; two brothers, Monteke Brown, and Anthony Thomas, preceded him in death.

Maurice leaves to cherish his memory fiancée; Alberta (Alli) Gordon; children; Maurisha Brown, Tishay Wright, Tyeisha Simmons, Maurshay Brown, Maurice Brown Jr, the triplets Maurkel, Maurcel, Maurchel Brown, and the baby of the bunch Marteno Brown; father Van Rowe Sanders; sisters; Misty Jones (Joe),Sheleta Sanders-Evans (Antoine), Morgan Brown, and Monee Wallace; brothers; Marlon Brown Sr. (Quantrel), Van Sanders Jr. Grandchildren; Miguel Hernandez, Maurice Brown III, Mariah Brown, Jayden Brown, Josanna and Joselina Santana, Trayaunna Simmons, Braxton Jones, Emori Irby; nieces; Rahnice Clay, Dennik and Miya McBride; nephews Marlon Brown Jr., London Lona, Leon Edwin Wallace, and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

*“Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.”
-1 Corinthians 13:4-8*

She Was His PEACE!

MB this is DEDICATED TO THE ONE WE LOVE

Gonna tell you a quick story
Listen easy, feel the glory,,,,,,,,,,,,,
His name was Maurice, some called him mb.....
And yes, oh yes, how special was he!

He came with a smile, and a laugh so unique.....
That whenever you would hear his voice... make you grin, slap your thighs, and stomp both your feet!!!.....

His personality was as big as all outdoors.....
And he was never afraid to do any of god’s chosen chores.....

A man of Christ, there’s no doubt in my mind.....
Though he struggled on the outside,
On the inside he remained kind.....

True real was his motto, if you don’t want to know don’t ask.....
But if you were really ready for the truth to be told.....
This brother was up for the task!!!

A man so full of love and life would never want to see us weeping.....
So instead, let’s hold our memories of love for him, in our hearts for safe keeping!!!

His children, grandchildren, all that he loved he showed, with a heart of gold, while his zest for life was both pure and simple indeed.....
His seeds have been planted, from his pain he’s been freed!!!.....

As he watches over all he loved....(cause we know he loved to be a protector),,, Just remember he’s peaceful now, chillin with his Holy Dad and learning to use his heavenly scepter..... did y’all get that!!!! I knew that you would

Forever love you Maurice Lamont Brown
Rest peacefully!!!
