The registration fee is $35.

The cost for the program is $7,000 for the initial nine-month training. This includes tuition, room, books, supplies, and breakfast and lunch.

A minimum deposit payment of 50% of your tuition is due no later than 60 days prior to the first day of the training.

All cancellations must be made in writing 45 days before the training starts to receive a full refund and sent to Reach the World Next Door by mail or e-mail. Enrollment is limited so please submit your application soon.

At this time, because of limited housing, Reach the World Next Door prefers to accept only single missionary trainees. However, please contact us directly if you are married or have children so we can explore possibilities for training. Because of legal reasons, Reach the World Next Door can only accept students that are 18 years old and older at the starting date of the program.
