

Acknowledgement

The family of George E. Hill Jr. wish to extend our sincerest appreciation to our many friends and family for all acts of kindness, expressions of sympathy and comfort shown during these hours of bereavement. Your generosity of giving and sympathetic understanding, has provided us with great strength, and aided us to lighten our heavy burden at this time. May God bless each of you.

In Love With our Dad

*Of all the special gifts in life however great or small to have you as our dad was the greatest gift of all May the winds of love blow softly and whisper in your ear
we love and miss you dad wish that you were here Deep in our hearts, your life is kept to love and cherish, but don't forget
tomorrow we can share but yesterday are always there
A silent thought a secret tear keep your memory ever near in our heart forever.*

~ Reflections of His Life ~

George Edward Hill, Jr was born December 29, 1950, in Kansas City, Mo. To Arthur Mae Hill and George E. Hill, Sr. He graduated from Central High School in the Kansas City, MO Public School District.

George held various jobs but primarily worked as a self-employed entrepreneur, providing transportation services to others. He experienced the bonds of marriage and divorce. George had four children. George found immense joy in watching wrestling, played congos in a few bands, spending time with his family, and listening to music.

George found Christ at an early age. On December 10, 2023, George E. Hill, Jr. departed from this life. He was preceded in death by his parents, one son Lewis (LA) Hill, two sisters, Darlene McCullough and Clarice Pace, and a brother Arthur L. Hill.

He survived by his children, Catherine Allen (Cameron), Augustine Montgomery, and George Hill, along with siblings, Willie Vaden (Kathy), Robert Vaden (Marva), Mae Duley (Cornell), Kathryn Brockenberry, Helen Simmons (Melvin), and Gwen Walker. George also leaves behind nine grandchildren, 3 great grandkids, numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives, and a multitude of friends who will forever cherish his memory.
