Casey was born in Minot, ND, on February 26, 1988, to Eddy and ZaZa (Bennett) Binfield. As a kid, he was a wonderful big brother who always protected his little sister. He loved to ride bike and skateboard all over town with his best friend, Danny. Casey enjoyed drawing and creating art, a passion he held through his adulthood.

Casey earned two NASM certifications as a Nutrition Coach and Certified Personal Trainer. He also earned an ISSA certification as a Specialist in Bodybuilding. He idolized Arnold Schwarzenegger and created an Instagram account to help teach others how to lift weights and eat right. He also used this platform to encourage positivity of body and mind. His motto was, "If it's meant to be, it's up to me".

Casey had the biggest heart and cared about everyone around him more than himself. He never wanted to make anyone mad or upset. He was encouraging and a jokester, always trying to light up the lives of others. Casey loved music of all genres, creating a "positive playlist" to keep him in high spirits. He loved spending time with his nieces and nephew, who loved to be picked up and swung around by his strong arms.

Left to cherish Casey's memory are his parents, Eddy and ZaZa; his sister, Brandy (Jonathan Barnett) Binfield; his twin nieces, Akira and Kendra Barnett; his nephew, Lucas Barnett; his special cousin and her children: Kristina (David, III) and Anthony, Gavin, and Blake Badgley; his grandma, Gloria Binfield; uncles: Rock (Carol), Rich, and Roger (Mary) Bennett; aunts, Elsa Binfield and Laura (Roger) Braun; cousins: Kenny Mariner, Shawn and Mason Braun; and his best friend, Danny Lund.

Preceding him in death his grandpa, Willard Binfield, and his grandma, Cherry Bennett.

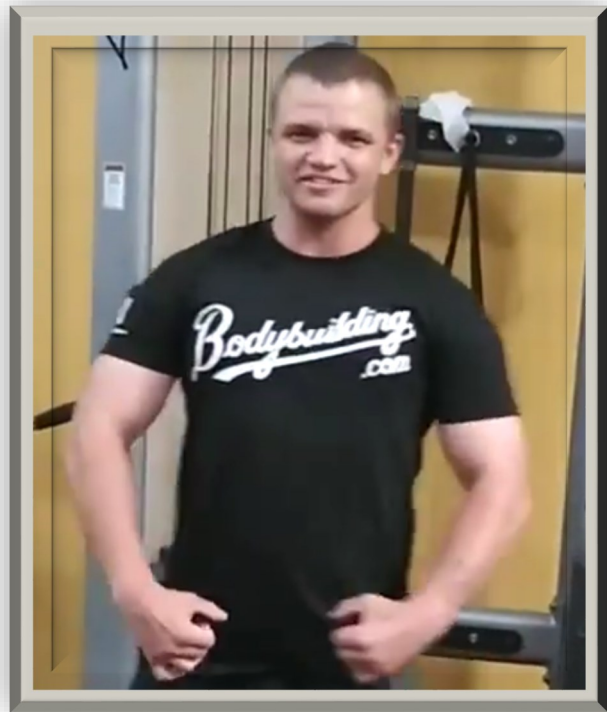

I'll be there

There was no time to say goodbye, but this I ask -- please do not cry, remember me as you think best the happy times - forget the rest. Look for me and I'll be there and you will find me everywhere. In the gentle touch of breeze that cools the skin or swirls the leaves. In the scent and colour of flowers that gave to me such happy hours, on sunny days under sunny skies of blue just think of me, I'll be with you. In winter when there's cloud or mist, the rain will give you my kiss, as wood smoke lingers in the air, look for me and I'll be there. Where seagulls cry above the sea and surf rolls in so endlessly. Among towering trees that soar above in all these things that I once loved. Look for me and I'll be there, you'll feel my presence everywhere.

*But with that said, I'm gone like the wind - always felt but never seen.
