

Illinois Farmer

Bury this old Illinois farmer with respect.

He slept the Illinois nights of his life after days of work in Illinois cornfields.

Now he goes on a long sleep.

The wind he listened to in the cornsilk and the tassels, the wind that combed his red beard zero mornings when the snow lay white on the yellow ears in the bushel basket at the corncrib, the same wind will now blow over the place here where his hands must dream of Illinois corn.

On behalf of the families we serve, we thank you for the love and support you have shown them by your presence at the visitation and funeral ceremonies.

At the time of grief, it is important for families to be reassured that people care about them.

There is great value in funeral service and your support.
