A Mother's Love

*A Mother's love is something that no one can explain,
It is made of deep devotion and of sacrifice and pain,
It is endless and unselfish and enduring, come what may,
For nothing can destroy it or take that love away . . .
It is patient and forgiving when all others are forsaking,
And it never fails or falters even though the heart is breaking . . .
It believes beyond believing when the world around condemns,
And it glows with all the beauty of the rarest, brightest gems . . .
It is far beyond defining,
it defies all explanation,
And it still remains a secret like the mysteries of creation . . .
A many splendored miracle man cannot understand And another wondrous evidence of God's tender guiding hand.*

Evelyn Volesky was born June 19, 1935 in Dickinson, ND to Steve and Molly (Kadrmaz) Kudrna. She attended various country schools and later graduated from Dickinson High School. On June 14, 1954, she married Benjamin Volesky at Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic Church in New Hradec. The couple was blessed with five children. They lived in Dickinson and Moses Lake, WA before settling in Billings County. In 1972 they bought their farm near New Hradec and made their home there until 2015. Evelyn worked beside her husband, Ben, on the family farm. She was an avid seamstress, gardener, and canner to provide for her family. She sewed many clothes for her children and was a member of the homemakers for many years. Evelyn owned a ceramic business when they lived on the farm. Evelyn loved spending time with family, watching wrestling, shopping and going on little adventures. She was known for her creativity in her passions – especially sewing, crocheting, embroidering, and quilting. Evelyn is survived by her daughters, Rosalyn (Brian) McDermott of Doniphan, NE, Judy (Ken) Berg of Lincoln, ND, and Denys (Doug) Schwartz of Bismarck, ND; daughter-in-law, Barb Volesky of Fergus Falls, MN; grandchildren, Ben, Brandon, Kate, Kallie, Corey, Shana, Kodi, Kelsey, Jared, Danielle, Isaac, Calvin, Kaylynn, Chassey, and Rodney; 17 great-grandchildren, sister Verna Chorne; and brothers, Andrew and Glenn Kudrna. She is preceded in death by her parents; husband, Benjamin Volesky; sons, Calvin and Todd Volesky; grandson, Cameron Volesky; and great-granddaughter, Margaret McDermott; and brothers, Donald and Edward Kudrna.
