"Take care of him for me" ...
"I'll loan you for a little time a child of mine" he said. For you to love while he lives in mourn, for when he's dead. It may be one or seven years, or 22 or three. But will you till I can call him back, take care of him for me? He'll bring his charms to gladden you, and should his stay be brief, you'll have his lovely memories, as a solace for your grief. I cannot promise he will stay, since all from earth return. But there are lessons taught down there. I would want this child to learn. I looked this wide world over, and search for teachers true. And from the throngs, that crowd, life's lanes, I was elected you. Now, will you give him all your love, nor think the labor in vain, nor hate me when I come to call to take him back again"

I fancied that I heard you say, "dear Lord, they will be done. For all the joy, the child will bring, the risk of grief we'll run. We'll shelter him with tenderness. We'll love him while we may. And for the happiness, we've known, forever grateful stay. But should the Angel call for him, much sooner than we planned, will brave the bitter grief that comes and try to understand.

In Loving Memory of
