

Floral Bearers
&
Pall Bearers
Family & Friends

- Acknowledgements -

The family of

Marcella Delores Bryant

acknowledges with grateful hearts and deep appreciation all acts of sympathy extended to our family during our time of bereavement. Thank you for your expressions of love, loyalty, and support. May the Lord continue to bless you and keep you forever in His grace and mercy.

- THE BRYANT FAMILY -

Professional Services Entrusted to:

726 SW Tarboro Street | Wilson, NC 27893
(252) 237-2169 (Office) | (252) 237-0120 (Fax)

CELEBRATION OF

Life

June 25, 1964

July 7, 2023

Marcella

DELORES BRYANT

Saturday, July 15, 2023

- 2:00PM -

Carrons Funeral Home
Robert King, Sr. Memorial Chapel
726 S. Tarboro St., Wilson, NC
Dr. Sandi Newsome, Eulogist

- Order of Service -

Apostle Dr. Mark Dickens, Presiding

Processional.....Clergy & Family

Musical Selection.....Ms. Natasha Dickens

Scriptural Readings

Old Testament.....Ms. Karen Bryant

New Testament.....Ms. Ashley Bryant

Prayer of Comfort

Selection.....Apostle Dr. Mark Dickens

Remarks.....2 minutes please

Siblings Tribute

Tribute to Mom

Acknowledgements/Obituary.....Ms. Quinette Rich-Bey

Musical Selection.....Ms. Natasha Dickens

Eulogy.....Apostle Dr. Mark Dickens

Funeral Director's Brief

Recessional & Viewing

- INTERMENT -
Private for the family

- Obituary -

Marcella Delores Bryant

was born the daughter of Willie Bryant, Jr. and Elizabeth Bryant on June 25, 1964 in Manhattan, New York. God in His infinite wisdom and unending love called her home to eternal rest on July 7, 2023.

Marcella was reared in Hempstead, NY. During her adolescence her family relocated to Rocky Mount, North Carolina. While in North Carolina, she received her formative education from the Rocky Mount Public School System. After completing all of her coursework, Marcella received her high school diploma from Rocky Mount Senior High School.

Shortly after Marcella graduated high school, she entered the work force. She was employed for many years as a bank teller and a sales manager at a department store. Marcella had a zest for life and adventure. She was always trying new things. During her personal time, she would often be found watching some of her favorite tv shows. When time would permit, she would also enjoy a nice fishing trip. Marcella was a gifted craftsman. She would make the most beautiful handmade quilts and scarves.

Believing in the love of Jesus Christ and the word of God, she gave her life over to Him willingly. It was during this time she united with the Angel Way Ministries under the pastoral leadership of Dr. Sandi Newsome. She was also a member under the leadership of Pastor Carlos and Hannah Desoto and became a fellow servant in the ministry via the internet. Always desiring to have a deeper understanding of God's word, she embarked on her journey of Christian Education. She was enrolled and matriculated in her classes for six years. Marcella's faithfulness and diligence never went unnoticed. She was consecrated as a deaconess and an ordained minister in the Lord's Church. Marcella enjoyed spreading the word of God and encouraging God's people. Most of the time she would help those who were less fortunate and encourage those who were lost. A true and faithful soldier has now gone from labor to reward.

Loving and lasting memories are left to be cherished by a special life friend, James Lucas; her daughter, Toccara Andrews (Antonio); a son, Michael Ray, Jr. (Glenette); two sisters, Karen D. Bryant, Loretta E. Clark (Darryl) and Aniya Smith (Larry); two brothers, Ronald J. Bryant, and Willie Bryant, III (Christy); several grandchildren, Kamari Sykes, DeAnte Sykes, Dexter "DJ" Sykes, and Shamelle Andrews; ex-husband and friend, Michael Ray, Sr.; a host of nieces, nephews, other loving relatives, and friends.