“A Mindful God”

Psalter 281

*Mindful of our human frailty
Is the God in Whom we trust;
He Whose years are everlasting,
He remembers we are dust.*

*Man is like the tender flower,
And his days are like the grass,
Withered where it lately flourished
By the blighting winds that pass.*

*Changeless is Jehovah’s mercy
Unto those who fear His Name,
From eternity abiding
To eternity the same.*

*All the faithful to His covenant
Shall behold His righteousness;
He will be their strength and refuge,
And their children’s children bless.*
