

Robert Obritsch

was born on December 15, 1954 in Dickinson, North Dakota, the 7th of 12 children born to Andrew and Viola Obritsch. He attended grade school and high school in South Heart, ND. He farmed and ranched with his older brother, Ronald, on the family farm until his death. Bob lived a single life as a farmer devoting his time to dairying until 2002 and beef cattle thereafter. He and his brother, Ronald, spent many years together raising beef and dairy cattle, putting up hay, and planting and harvesting their crops. He was quiet and spent most of his time to himself on the farm reading the Bible and keeping up with ongoing news and weather. He enjoyed gardening and took great interest in flowers. Grateful to have shared his life are his brothers and sisters, Marcella Riecken, Sheridan, WY; Markus (Joan), Dickinson; Harvey (Kathleen), Gladstone; Ronald (Georgia), Dickinson; Andrea Hintz (Frank), Dickinson; Sandra Fischer (Larry), Bowman; Dr. Jerry (Nancy), Bismarck; Wesley (Julie), Lanesboro, MN; Kelly Bredeken (Dean), Blaine, MN; Mary Smith (Quentin), Hudson, WI; and many nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. Bob was preceded in death by his parents, Andrew and Viola, and one brother, Richard, who died 30 years ago on the same day.

God's Farm

God needs someone in Heaven to plow and plant the rows.
And when He calls on me,
I know that I must go.

Remember that I won't be gone —
I will just be away working on God's farm til we're united again one day.

There will be no storms in Heaven and the fields are long and straight.
When it's time for you to join me,
I'll be waiting beside Heaven's gate.
Remember, until that day arrives,
When once more our lives we'll share,
to look in the green fields growing and you'll see me working there.
