LIFE'S ADVENTURE

It was the year 1947, I was young at about 18 The high school band room was full of toots and squeaks That's were a clarinet player and coronet player met The coronet player shunned this gal But somehow, she caught my eye She became my pal.

During the next year I met and dated a couple more girls Neither of these made my head swirl So, I called and asked for a date with that cute Garland girl We went to shows and danced a lot About that time a mission call I got

The dating now ended But some letters we did send One letter I wrote I described how my wife to be should be She responded, "That could be me!"

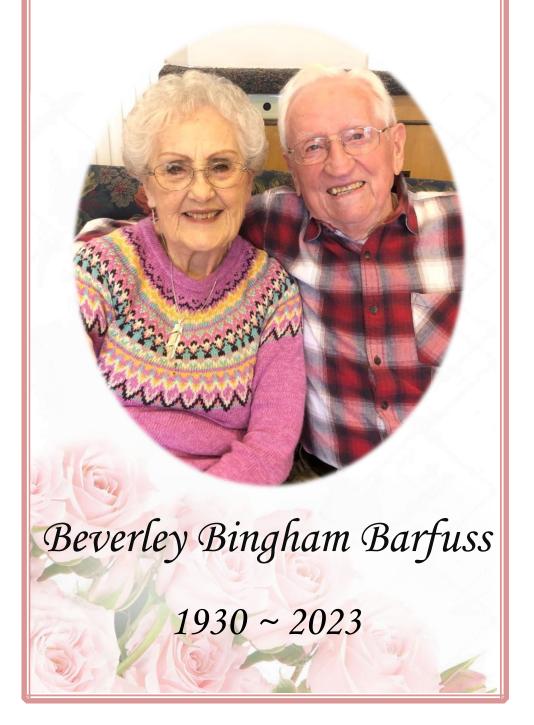

The mission ended and we stopped at BYU My "Indian reservation" hair was in need of a trim But no barber shops were open so the evening was glim!

But all went well for Barfuss, Saurey, and Baker We danced at the Coon Chicken Inn and got home late But the dorm mother let Beverley in.

> The one thing that made us relate so well Was, I was so charming and handsome and she was a Doll.
