ACKNOWLEDGMENT

During a time like this, we learn how much our friends really mean to us. Your expression of sympathy will always be treasured. May God richly Bless each of you. The family of Jay Cee Hill.

Jay was born in Denver, Colorado to Flossie Hill on 11/6/1950. He went to high school at East High School and then proceeded to driving big rig trucks until he attended Metro State College majoring in Criminal Justice Law.

He enjoyed going to jazz concerts, listening to music, and watching football, specifically the Kansas City Chiefs.

Jay is preceded in death by his mother, Flossy Hill and his siblings Tyrone, Beverly, Bernadine, and his youngest son, JayCee.

Jay spent five years of his early childhood in National Jewish Hospital after having half of his lung removed because of tuberculosis. After returning home to his siblings, older brother, sisters and Mother, Jay was raised carefully by his loving mother who took time with Jay to make sure he knew how the world around him worked. Jay was curious about the world and decided to travel and live in Alaska, San Francisco, California, Hawaii, and many other states. Jay loved all his children and would continually try to connect with them so they would understand his adventurous ways.

Jay met and married his first wife Shirley Ann and had his first son Alseno Hill who proceeded to give him several grandchildren. When he met Guyrie in October 2008, he found someone who understood his kind heart and they grew together for fifteen years going to jazz concerts together, road trips to bond their relationship, and spending time with relatives before he passed away.

Jay Cee Hill, age 73 of Denver passed away on 12/15/2023 in Denver.

Jay is survived by his wife Guyrie Ingram, sons Alseno Hill (Rene), and Jaysen Danielle Hill (Breanna), daughter Lakeyla Hill, cousin Melinda (Sissy) Moore, and grand-children and great-grandchildren.

Tributes

From Wife (Guyrie)

My Jay, when I think back to our early days, I think if the way our lives were then, the way they were before your passing, and all the things that have happened since we first started out. I think of the laughter and conversations we shared. I think of family stuff, tough times, and every-day frustrations we've somehow gotten through, and the good news, happy moments, and milestone days we've celebrated along the way. Even though it's hard for me to believe how far we came, it's even harder for me to put into words just how much it's meant to have you by my side through it all. With you, I've found someone I always like to be with, no matter what we do. I've discovered how much it means to be able to share hopes and dreams, good times and bad times. I've found warmth, understanding, and a depth of caring that has touched my heart. I've found not only the love of my lifetime but also my very best friend. I want you to know how important you were to me, and how lucky I was to know and love such a special man.

From Son (Alseno)

My father and I had a great relationship, we may not have talked to each other very much, or see each other often, but when we did, it always was like we spoke yesterday. He sometimes felt like I was upset with him because I didn't call as much or visit. But when I called him and he finally answered (because he's so stubborn) we would laugh out loud! Because he knew I was going to bust his chops about being so emotional. Man, I'm going to miss you Pop's! We will be together again having good out loud laughs, tell my brother and Tyree hello, I love you and don't worry about Little Bit, she's family and family sticks together so rest in peace Pop's I love you.

From Son (Jaysen)

I always looked up to you and I'm glad we got to have the conversations we did together. I love you Dad and hope you are at peace.

From Daughter (Lakeyla)

I watched you suffer,
I saw you die,
but all I could do,
was sit close by,
You went away, we had to part,
God eased your pain
and this is where we are,
Those we love,
don't go away,
they walk beside us every day.
Unseen, unheard, but always near.
Father, you will always be so loved and missed

From Cousin (Sissy)

To my cousin Jay, we played as kids in the hood, took trips together, ate together but most of all, we were a pair. You lived your life to the fullest and was always there for us. I'm going to miss you but I'm going to see you on the other side. You're in my heart, Love Sissy.

God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be He wrapped his arms around you, and whispered, "COME TO ME" You didn't deserve what you went through so He gave you needed rest, GOD'S GARDEN must be Beautiful HE only takes THE BEST
