

The Mortgage Application process is time consuming and costly. With the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic, mortgage brokers and banks experienced a massive influx of applications and refinancing requests putting a strain on operations and customer satisfaction. Automation accelerates the process application process, reduces errors and helps them to meet their customers' needs faster than ever before.

Without Unitek

Processing one mortgage application -
6 weeks

With Covid, mortgage applications increased by 55% putting a strain on teams to speed up applications and slowing delivery of service to customers

66% of humans make regular errors in data processing

30% of customer mortgage applications happen in face- to-face in branch

Mortgage applications are incredibly capital intensive in terms of human hours and cost.

With Unitek

1 minute

With Unitek you can process thousands of applications in minutes making your business and its costs scaleable.

99% accuracy in processing (3000% less likely to produce an error in data input than a human)

You can cater for the other 70% who transact online

Unitek can reduce this cost by 75% savings thousands per application making the process scalable

