REMEMBERING A SPECIAL SISTER

*If roses grow in Heaven Lord,
Please pick a bunch for me,
Place them in my Sister's arms
And tell her they're from me.
Tell her that I love and miss her
And when she turns to smile,
Place a kiss upon her cheek
And hold her for a while.
Because remembering her is easy,
I do it every day,
But missing her is a heartache
That never goes away.*

-Love Your Big Sister, Sheryl

Her Story

Sharon R. Brown was born to Joan Harriet Tucker-Smith and John Wesley Brown on September 17th, 1956.

Sharon was educated in the Philadelphia Public School System where she excelled and graduated.

Sharon also worked in the Philadelphia School District as a teacher's Aide and at Protestant Nursing Home in West Philadelphia.

Sharon, affectionately known as Peanut grew up in Philadelphia alongside her sister Sheryl McKnight. Sharon enjoyed listening to music, dancing and having a good time with friends and family. She had a passion for cooking, baking and swapping recipes with her god sister/cousin Marjana.

Sharon had a heart of gold. If she loved you it was nothing she would not do for you. Sharon also loved spending time with her big sister Sheryl - we all know that was her heart. Sharon made clear that is something was to happen to her for her family to make sure her sister was good. That we all knew!

Although she did not birth any children, Sharon took on the responsibility of being a god mother to Erica Taylor aka her Eric. Sharon loved her role as a godmother as her and Eric spent alot of her time together and created everlasting memories.

Sharon was preceded in death by her mother, Joan Harriet Smith; father, John Wesley Brown; stepfather, Thomas Smith; grandparents, Robert A. Tucker, Sr., Inez Tucker, and Ophelia Brown; uncle, Robert A. Tucker, Jr.; and brother-in-law, Calvin McKnight.

Sharon leaves to mourn: two sisters Sheryl McKnight, Tara Brown and one brother, John Brown, Jr.; three aunts, Carol Tucker, Janet Fletcher (Harry Fletcher, Sr.) and Christine Tucker; a very special God daughter, Erica Taylor; a host of cousins, other relatives and friends who will miss her presence.

Lovingly Submitted,
The Family
