

Doris Knudson was born July 22, 1928, in Brooklyn, New York to Einar and Alma (Olsen) Ramsland. She spent numerous years working for Marsh & McLennan Insurance on Wall Street. Doris met Clifford Knudson during a trip to North Dakota. They were married on November 21, 1964, and together had two daughters, Fay and Joy. Doris and Clifford farmed and ranched near Almont for many years before retiring and moving to New Salem. She enjoyed gardening, cross-stitch, bible studies, teaching Sunday school and traveling with Cliff. Montana and Minnesota were their favorite travel destinations. Doris was thrilled to become a grandma and loved spending time with her grandson Jasper. In later years, she enjoyed volunteering at Elm Crest Manor. Doris is survived by her daughters and sons-in-law, Fay and Larry Doll and Joy and Nathan Fetting; grandson, Jasper; one sister-in-law, Ramona Sorneson; and many nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clifford; brother Einar; and sisters, Alfheld, Evelyn & Alice. In lieu of flowers, the family suggests donations be made to the Dakota Boys and Girls Ranch, Samaritan's Purse or The Navigators ministry.

*Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
to sweet eternity.
We all have different journeys.
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
but never meant to stay...
Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know.
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.
And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord*

*I've got a mansion just over the hilltop In that bright land where we'll never grow old And some day yonder
we will never more wander
But walk on streets that are purest gold*

*I wait quietly before God, for my victory comes from him.
He alone is my rock and my salvation,
my fortress where I will never be shaken.*
-Psalms 62:1-2
