Conferences

Once again we're preparing to show you what we've been doing this quarter. We want to discuss our strengths, and even our weaknesses with you so you'll see our progress and where we should work harder. Thank you for attending! Photos: Carnegie Picture Lab art project - color wheels

This Week -

This week we're beginning the life of Joseph in Bible. We're also continuing to memorize Psalm 91. We have five more verses to go, then we'll practice and review to make sure it's firmly in our minds. Ask your child to try reciting some of it with the signs.

Pajama Party

We're having a P.J. party on Friday to celebrate good conferences and hard work. Kids can wear their p.j.'s, bring one stuffie, a pillow, and a blanket (if they want to!). They've planned lots of fun activities for the day and we're excited!

Lifestyle Challenge

This is the last week of our Lifestyle Challenge (days 18-21), working towards creating a positive self-image and recognizing our strengths. If your child hasn't been keeping up, please encourage him/her to catch up and explain again why this is a worthwhile activity.
