*When I come to the end of the day
And the sun has set for me
I want no rites in gloom-filled room.
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not too long
And not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love we once shared-
Miss me, but let me go.
For this is a journey we all must take
And each must go alone.
It's all a part of the Maker's plan,
A step to the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick of heart
Go to the friends we know & bury your
Sorrows in doing good deeds-
Miss me, but let me go.*

Craig Alan Ronnie passed away on June 23, 2024, in Morris, Minnesota, having reached the age of 63 years.

Craig was born on June 12, 1961, in Starbuck, Minnesota, to Clarlont & Virginia Ronnie. He was baptized and confirmed at the Cyrus Lutheran Church. Craig graduated with the Cyrus High School Class of 1979. Following high school, he headed off on an adventure with his good friend, Kent Engebretson, to work on a ranch in Hyattville, Wyoming. He then returned to the family farm to continue farming with his dad, Clem Ronnie. Craig also worked for Morris Sealcoat and Meixel Trucking. He enjoyed following NASCAR racing and was able to travel to some races with his buddies. Each fall he looked forward to carrying on the traditional deer camp at the family farm where he would sit along the banks of the Chippewa River. He also found much joy in working and simply staying busy. Craig had a few fun nicknames such as: Uncle Buck, Whiskers, and Craigers. He loved giving people grief just to see them smile and give it right back. He had a big heart and was always willing to lend a hand.

In June of 2009, Craig married his “dear” wife Dina Rivas. Simultaneously, he became the world’s best step-dad and grandpa.

Craig will be lovingly remembered by his wife Dina; three step-children, Doug Schmidt, Dominic (Heather) Schmidt, and Danessa (Teresa) Schmidt; twelve grandchildren; and his siblings, Linda Martin, Larry (Dianne) Ronnie, Brenda Skare, Bev (Ken) Paulzine, and Carol (Rick) Jenniges. Also, all of his nieces, nephews, many cousins and countless friends and community members. Craig was preceded in death by his parents, Clarlont and Virginia Ronnie; and three brothers-in-law, Victor Moreno, Wayne Skare, and Harold Martin.
