Afterglow

*I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
of smiles when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo whispering softly down the ways of happy times and laughing times and bright and summer days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve to dry before the sun of happy memories that I leave
When life is done.
Love You*

Precious Memories...

Jose's Life Journey

Jose J. Acevedo, age 40 was born May 4, 1982, in Atlantic City, NJ, to the late Candido and Margarita Acevedo. He said his final goodbye on Thursday, March 30, 2023. He was surrounded by his loving family.

Later his family moved to Camden, NJ on the Back Block (Carmen Street), with his sisters and brothers. He was a loving father of four children, Delysse, Mason, Andie, Xander.

Jose had his way. He did whatever he wanted to do, how he wanted to do it.

He loved his children, and enjoyed playing video games. He liked music and watching TV. Loved being with his family. Especially hanging out with his nephews Jovanny, Eric, Tuntin, and Puncho. He loved all his nieces and nephews. No matter how much he fought with his Sibling and Mother, his love for them was very strong. He did not play about them. He was a loyal friend.

Jose will be missed by so many, he leaves a host of family and friends to share in his memory.

A Loving TRIBUTE

“For Our Brother”

It must be a war in Heaven for our God
To be calling, saying “I need you back home”. Our brave angel Loving and strong, God only knows where your heart belongs. We asked “How can we move on?” Someone tell us what went wrong?” We hold on tight, like knowing every word to our favorite song. Heaven needed another hero so he called our brother home.

Love your Miriam, Lucy, Ines, Candido, Pete

To our Uncle

I little knew that day was going to call your name.
In life we loved you dearly; in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you; you did not go alone,
For part of us went with you the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories; your love is still our guide. And though we cannot see, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken and nothing seems the same. But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again.

Love, Nieces and Nephews
