

After Roger and Jackie sold the farm, they moved to New Berlin, WI. Jackie got her CDL license and started driving for the Waukesha Metro Transit bus line where she had a bus route in the City of Waukesha (suburb of Milwaukee, WI). Due to health reasons, she had to eventually retire from driving bus. In 2007, Roger passed away and Jackie moved back to Sioux Falls. When her health started to decline, she was moved to the Alexandria area and became a resident of Diamond Willow Assisted Living where she lived until her passing.

Jackie enjoyed spending time with her family, attending plays, playing bridge, watching basketball, and going to the movie theater to see all the new releases.

Jackie died on Wednesday, March 16, 2022, at Diamond Willow Assisted Living in Alexandria at the age of 83. She is survived by her three children: Michael (Rhonda) Groth, Lori (Jerald) Aaberg, and Julie Taylor; five grandchildren: Ryan (Katy) Groth, Justin and Brooke Aaberg, Ashley (Cully) Williams and Jordan Taylor; and one great-grandson: Silas Williams; and two sisters: Susan Harvey and Vivian Ross. "Gone yet not forgotten, although we are apart, your spirit lives within us, forever in our hearts."

The Twenty-Third Psalm

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
