

After Glow

*I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.*

*I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways. Of happy times and laughing times, & bright and sunny days. I'd like the tears of those who grieve, To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.*

Love Madeline

Madeline's Life Story

Madeline Torruellas was born April 27, 1967 to her mother Cruz D. Rivera and her father Angelo Torruellas in Camden, New Jersey.

In 1986, she graduated High School from Sicklerville Vocational School. She gave birth to her first child Priscilla Perez in 1988 and her second child Armando J. Perez Jr. in 1990.

Madeline was the one that everyone went to talk to and vent to. She was a great listener and gave honest advice. She loved being with the family and attending family gathering. She loved music, especially her club music. Her laughter was contagious and when she hugged you, you felt the love. She was the life of the party and you knew when Madeline was there. She would come in dressed up, hair and nails done, and carrying her big purse. She love doing hair and getting her hair done. Madeline had a beautiful heart and any way she could help she would help you. All the kids love going with “titi” Madeline and she love picking up the kids and taking them to the stores. She would let the girls do her make-up and hair. Then she would go out and show it off to everyone. She would give her last if she had it. Madeline was loved by so many people. The memories we have with her will stay with us forever.

Madeline leaves behind her two children Priscella, Armando Jr., two beautiful granddaughters, Amalia Hernandez and Harmoni Perez. Madeline had ten (10) siblings; six (6) brothers, Raymond, Greg, Miguel, Gary, Jonathan, and Joshua; four (4) sisters, Lisa, Mimi, Tina, and Moya. Madeline had so many nieces and nephews that she loved and treated like her own children. She was loved so much by all her family, aunts, uncles, cousins, and friends. Heaven has gained another angel and she will truly be missed.
