Praise God for his protection... the bottom part of the wall crumbled like sand and the builders said it really wasn't safe!

The footings are done and the soakaway has been dug. The doorway is being knocked through (and made safe) so that the door company can come and do a site survey next week.

The electrician will be arriving in the new couple of weeks to put in the extra electrics for the door and lighting.

Open Gardens - see Barbara Yaxley if you're willing to open your garden one 3rd Sunday in the month during the summer.

Induction Service for Pr Paulo
