

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free.
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard him call.
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day.
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way.
I found that peace at close of day.
If my parting has left a void,
then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
ah yes these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow.
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life has been full, I've savored much.
Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your hearts and share with me.
God wanted me now; He set me free.

Brother William L. Anderson Jr. a.k.a. "Pee Wee", transitioned to a new life on September 8, 2024. He was born February 7, 1961 to the late William L. Anderson Sr. and Willie Pearl Anderson in Ft. Rucker, Alabama. He graduated from North High School in 1980. He was a member of the United States Marine Reserves and was called to active duty to be in the Armed Forces in Beirut, Lebanon. William excelled at anything he put his hands to. His favorite subject was fashion design and he was known as "Akron's Favorite Tailor". William was a true "Jack of all Trades". If you needed something done, you could call on him. From car repairs to home repairs, there was nothing he couldn't do. He was a harder worker and had a great sense of humor. He was also known for tickling all the kids. William was a lifetime member of Saints Temple Ministries where he participated in the choir, and music ministry. He had the gift of helping hands because he was a blessed handyman. He was a major pillar in the Saints Temple Renovations. William L. Anderson Jr. was preceded in death by his parents William L. Anderson Sr. and Willie Pearl Anderson; sisters Kimbal and Gail Anderson; step-son Diaire Palmer. He is survived by ex-wife Vickie Anderson; daughters LaToya (Justin) Greer, and Brittany Anderson; brother Mark Anderson; nieces Kandice Anderson, Jamie Anderson, Cody Christian, Premiere Anderson, and Aubri Anderson; nephew Phillip Anderson; step-daughter Marshall Palmer and step-son Dionte Palmer Sr.; grandchildren Jordyn Chasteen, Kennedi Hughes, Raelyn Anderson, Corniyah Lee, Cornielus Lee, Dointe Palmer Jr., Deandre Palmer, Nyasia Palmer, Kyla Palmer, and Danaja Palmer; great-granddaughter Journi Burton. Special cousins Pastor Terry (Cheryl) McKenzie, Darlene (Robert) Freeman, Daryl Miles, the late Bradley Miles, and his father Uncle John Miles, and a host of cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.
