RONALD'S LIFE STORY

Ronald André Prescott Sr. was the fifth child and the oldest of twin boys born to Floyd Henry and Lela Mae Prescott on June 3, 1952. He received his formal education in the Philadelphia Parochial School System and graduated from West Catholic High School for Boys in 1970. He was baptized Catholic and attended Holy Cross Church until failing health prevented him from attending regularly. Ronnie married three times and from his unions had three children, Ronald Andre Prescott Jr, Keven Terry Prescott, and Raina Nicole Prescott. Ronnie took great pride in his work as an accountant for Pennwalt (now known as Arkema). He was a loyal and trusted employee for over 30 years of service. Ronnie was an avid sports lover with his beloved football team the Raiders and the Phillies. If there was a game on the television, you could be sure that Ronnie was watching. You could also find him at the ballpark enjoying the moment with his children and his sister Gwen. Visiting the local casinos was also a pastime activity he enjoyed. Ronnie entered into external rest on Sunday, October 15, 2023. He was preceded in death by his parents: Floyd and Lela, Brother: Edward Coleman, and Sisters: Frankie Temple and Willie Mae Greenwood. He leaves to cherish his memory his children, Ronald Jr., Keven, and Raina. His daughter-in-law Linetta. His grandchildren: Brianna, Ronald III (Tre), Kiara, Kaela, Amaris, Keva and Brooke; his sister Gwen, his twin brother Terrance and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and loving friends.
