

Now That I Am Gone

Now that I am gone, remember me
With smiles and laughter,
And if you need to cry,
Cry with your brother or sister
Who walks in grief beside you.

And when you need me,
Put your arms around anyone and give to them
What you need to give to me.

There are so many who need so much.

I want to leave you something-
Something much better Than words or sounds.
Look for me in the people I've know or helped
In some special way.

Let me live in your heart as well as in your mind.

You can love me most by letting your love reach out to our loved ones; by embracing them and living in their love. Love does not die, people do. So, when all that's left of me is love, give me away as best you can!

OBITUARY

Andrene Claudette Stewart was born on August 13, 1981, at Victoria Jubilee Hospital in Kingston Jamaica W.I., to her proud parents Enalyn Thomas and Jeff Stewart. Andrene was raised in Jamaica W.I. until the age of eight. In 1989 she left for the U.S.A., where she settled in Brooklyn N.Y., with her family.

From 1989 Andrene started attending Elementary School P.S. 269, Shellback Junior High School, and Sheepshead Bay High School in Brooklyn, where she made a host of friends, she loved to socialize and engage others in conversation, and she made herself to be the toughest, but under all that toughness she was a loving, caring, kind person and love to laugh, she also loved to read a lot and write poems. When she is your friend, you have a friend indeed.

After Andrene was through with school, she went out on her own. Andrene made herself skillful in all kinds of jobs, she worked in the post office and airport, and she did demolition jobs, construction jobs, mechanics, and truck driving.

Her father Jeff Stewart predeceased her, Andrene leaves to cherish her memory, her mom Enalyn Thomas, her two sons Naquan Thomas, and Taquan Shields, three sisters: Pauline, Paulette, and Vevia, two brothers: Errol, and Lukel, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, cousins, other relatives, and friends.

Andrene will be truly missed by us all!
