Memories

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A Season,
AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN:

A TIME TO BE BORN,
AND A TIME TO DIE;
A TIME TO PLANT,
AND A TIME TO PLUCK UP THAT WHICH IS PLANTED;
A TIME TO KILL,
AND A TIME TO HEAL; A TIME TO BREAK DOWN,
AND A TIME TO BUILD UP,

a time to Weep

AND A TIME TO LAUGH;
A TIME TO MOURN, AND A TIME TO DANCE;
A TIME TO CAST AWAY STONES,
AND A TIME TO GATHER STONES TOGETHER;

Embrace

AND A TIME TO REFRAIN FROM EMBRACING;
A TIME TO SEEK, AND A TIME TO LOSE;
A TIME TO KEEP, AND A TIME TO CAST AWAY;
A TIME TO REND, AND A TIME TO SEW;
A TIME TO KEEP SILENCE, AND A TIME TO SPEAK;
A TIME TO LOVE, AND A TIME TO HATE;
A TIME FOR WAR, AND A TIME FOR

Peace

A Service of Berry Funeral Home
Elberton, Georgia

Mrs. Bobbie Sue Martin Kidd entered into rest on Saturday, September 30, 2023, at her residence in Elberton, just two days prior to her 91st birthday. Her last days were spent surrounded by family and friends that she loved so dearly.

She was born in Elberton on October 2, 1932, the oldest of two children of Robert Lee Martin and Cynthia Louise Allgood Martin. Except for a brief stint in Baltimore, MD during her childhood and WWII while her parents were working, she lived all of her life in Elbert County where she graduated from Nancy Hart High School.

The faith that was instilled in her from a young age at Fortsonia Baptist Church carried her throughout her almost 91 years. She later became a member of Deep Creek Baptist Church. Bobbie Sue never missed an opportunity to pray for those that she loved.

Bobbie Sue was a talented seamstress who worked in various sewing plants throughout her life, and was also the owner/operator of Suzy Sews in Fortsonia. She used her sewing talents to spread love as she made most of her daughters' clothing, including a wedding dress. Bobbie Sue later worked as an activities director at Heardmont, Spring Valley, and Nancy Hart Nursing Homes, as well as at Magnolia Estates. She was also a talented cake baker who made many wedding cakes, never accepting payment except to cover the cost of ingredients.

She had a green thumb that would make anyone jealous - being able to grow and arrange flowers, as well as keeping one of the most beautiful vegetable gardens in the county. Her feisty spirit and wittiness was sure to keep one in laughter. You never knew what she was going to say, but you could count on it being humorous and truthful, often times brutally truthful.

Above all, Grandma Bobbie Sue loved her family dearly. They were her pride and joy and she was extremely proud of each and every one of them.

In addition to her parents, she is preceded in death by her husband of 30 years, Bobby Alvin Wilson; husband of 41 years, Roy Jephtha Kidd; son-in-law, Jesse Michael "Mike" Baston; and brother and sister-in-law, William Edward "Buddy" and Judy Martin.

She is survived by her two daughters: Victoria Ann Baston and Cynthia Nell Adams and her husband Rusty, all of Elberton; grandsons and their wives: Michael O'Neal Baston and Sarah House Baston, Bobby Lee Baston and Britley Mercer Baston, Mark Wilson Adams and Katy Baker Adams, Stephen Patrick "Rick" Adams and Leanna Padgett Adams, and David Paul Baston and Jodie Wilhite Baston, all of Elberton; great-grandchildren: Mallory, Sydney, Mason, Garrett, Emmie, Kendall, Willow, Tucker, Devon, Peyton, Carson, Lawson, Landen, Maddox, Isabella, Cody, and Cassidy; great-great-grandchildren: Hadlee, Easton, and Ayden; and a host of other relatives and friends.

After her marriage to Roy, Bobbie Sue gained four children that she loved as her own: Bill Kidd of Elberton, Carol Lunceford of Dewy Rose, Joan and David Gunter of Dewy Rose, and Allen Kidd of Dewy Rose; and their respective families.

Loving Memory Honor
