

Evelyn was born on August 31, 1928, to Christ and Emma Wock. She lived in Dickinson, North Dakota which is where she met our grandfather, Martin. They were married for 71 years. She gave birth to our parents, all seven of them, and I am amazed at how she managed it all. Despite this, she remained an active member of her community and church. She served as a 4-H leader, Home Health Aide, and Senior Meals volunteer for five years. She was part of the Homemaker Club and served as a clerk on the School Board Elections for 30 years. She was also a Eucharistic Minister for 20 years at St. Bernard's Catholic Church in Belfield. All of this while caring for our grandfather and raising her seven children. Of course, our parents would have us believe they were all perfect angels. Our grandmother was truly a special woman, and we feel blessed to have had her in our lives. As we now become grandparents ourselves, we hope to create memories that are as special as the ones she made for us. We aim to pass on to our grandchildren some of her amazing qualities such as her faith, honesty, selflessness, lack of interest in material possessions, and loving spirit. We can only hope and pray that these traits will continue to be passed down from generation to generation. As the saying goes, 'Grandparents are like stars; you don't always see them, but you know they're there. She is survived by her six children: Kathy Light, Mineral Wells, TX, Connie (Vince) Gillette, Bismarck, ND, Nick (Gail) Haag, Spearfish, SD, Susan Sanchez, Cheyenne, WY, Tina Thornton, Dickinson, ND, Jim (Roxann) Haag, Fairfield, ND; sisters, Shirley Sample, AZ, and Marylene, ID; 23 grandchildren; 43 great-grandchildren; 10 great-great-grandchildren; and numerous niece and nephews. She is preceded in death by her husband, Martin; parents, Christ and Emma Wock; two brothers, Ray Wock and John Wock; daughter, Sandra Flath; grandsons, Brant Flath and Ronald Flath, Jr.; granddaughter, Jennifer Haag; and great-great-grandson, Bennett Cash.

August 31, 1928 - February 28, 2024

*I felt the light of heaven
it was shining down on me, I heard His voice, He called my name,
"my child, come follow Me;"
There is no pain, there is no hurt
nor sadness anywhere,
In heaven there is joy and love and I'll be waiting there;
For on the day I left this earth
I felt your many tears,
And now I watch you from above and keep you very near;
It hurts to be apart from me, but
be patient for the day, When we meet again in love and peace
when you too come this way.*
