Thoughts From Today's Sermon

In today's society we tend to display very little resolve-- very little determination in following biblical principles and honorable goals. We live in a society where much of what we have is disposable. We only keep what we can use and the rest we discard. And it's not all bad, but too often we carry this philosophy into our relationship with people. Friends are appreciated as long as they are useful. This morning we want to learn about the connection between resolve and faith; and we will learn it from an obscure story in the Old Testament. A story about a very special mother and her love for her children, expressed by her undying resolve.

Mission Statement

We accept the ministry given to us by God: to bring the healing power of Jesus' love to people, and to provide a nurturing place to build a friendship with Him.

Welcome

A heart felt welcome to our church family and guests on this beautiful Sabbath morning! May we all find in Christ our heart's desire, and in our song, our prayer, our listening and our fellowship, the transformation of His amazing grace.
