

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

To everything there is a season,
A time for every purpose under heaven:
A time to be born, and a time to die;
A time to plant,
and a time to pluck up what is planted;
A time to kill, and a time to heal;
A time to break down,
and a time to build up;
A time to weep, and a time to laugh;
A time to mourn, and a time to dance;
A time to cast away stones,
and a time to gather stones;
A time to embrace,
and a time to refrain from embracing;
A time to gain, and a time to lose;
A time to keep, and a time to cast away;
A time to rend, and a time to sew;
A time to keep silence,
and a time to speak;
A time to love, and a time to hate;
A time of war, and a time of peace.

Stanley was born December 28, 1935 to Jerry and Mary (Carda) Cap in Yankton, SD. He served in the U.S. Army in the 9th infantry.

After 5 years of dating, Stanley married Norma Ann List July 29, 1958 in Yankton. They farmed and raised their family in rural Yankton. He liked big cars, trucks and equipment; and his favorite color was chrome. He liked big horsepower, whether it was in tractors or trucks. He liked red tractors, especially two favorites – the IH V-8 with dual chrome stacks and the Case IH Quadtrac. He had an admirable collection of antique 2-cylinder John Deere tractors and was a member of the Tri State Old Iron Association. He also took great pride in his Cadillac collection. He loved to travel any time of year, but especially during the winter. He thought that winters were made for traveling. Going to the Days of '76 in Deadwood, Lake Havasu, Vegas, Reno and the Bahamas were like tradition. He enjoyed rodeos, parasailing, and riding jet skis. He really loved his family and getting together, especially for Independence Day and Christmas celebrations where countless memories were made. Being patriotic and a fireworks enthusiast, he was always game for putting on a family fireworks display.

Stanley, age 87, died Thursday, May 25, 2023 at his home in Yankton, surrounded by family and his dog, Ike.

Stanley is survived by his wife of over 64 years, Norma; children, Linda Cap of Tabor, Mary Cap of Hobbs, NM, Bob (Deb) Cap of Yankton, and Dona (Jan) Buyert of Sheridan, WY; 4 grandsons, JJ Alley, Dillon Creager, Jeremy (Taylor) Cap, and Bryton Buyert; 4 granddaughters, Michelle Alley, Katie (Chad) Rutherford, Kim Cap (fiancé Ron Wells), and Cheyenne (Titus) Brown; 3 great-grandchildren, James Rutherford, Ty Rutherford and Tenslee Brown; brother, David (Ione) Cap of Yankton; several nieces and nephews and his dog, Ike.

He was preceded in death by his parents.
