

Elijah McKay Willis

Born September 30, 1934 - Round Valley, Utah
 Died February 19, 2023 - Laketown, Utah

FAMILY PRAYER

Samuel Whitt, Son-in-law

PALLBEARERS - Grandsons

Joshua Willis
 Michael Whitt
 Dallin Willis
 Ryan Whitt

T. Justin Willis
 Cameron Willis
 Daniel Whitt
 Payson Willis

HONORARY PALLBEARER

Taylor Behunin, Grandson

Grandchildren who have served in the US Armed Forces

Maj. Joshua Willis Sgt. Emmalee Peterson
 Maj. Jared Roberts Capt. Morgan Curriden
Compassionate Service Provided by Laketown Ward Relief Society

SERVICES

Saturday, March 4, 2023 - 1:00 PM

Laketown Ward Chapel

Bishop David Fairbourn Conducting

Chorister Emma Carver

Prelude & Postlude Music. Kris Batty

Invocation Joshua Willis, Grandson

Opening Hymn #308
Love One Another

Memories of Dad. Tamra & Tracy, Daughters

Memories of Pa Tara Behunin - Granddaughter

Piano Selection Morgan Curriden - Grandson-in-law
Military Tribute

Speaker Thad Willis - Son

Speaker Tom Willis - Son

Closing Song Great Grandchildren
 Accompanied by Emmalee Peterson
I Am a Child of God

Benediction Payson Willis - Grandson

INTERMENT - Laketown City Cemetery

Dedication of Grave Scott Behunin, Son-in-law

Military Honors by the American Legion
 Funeral Directors - Allen-Hall Mortuary

In Remembrance of

Bishop Willis and Family
by Marie McCullough (Warner Robins GA 1978)

He was darkeyed, handsome, and quiet;
And he answered humbly the call.
And we knew that the Lord
Had blessed our Ward,
For this Bishop was loved by all.

Elijah McKay Willis
The name really fits how he served.
His soul seemed on fire
With a fervent desire,
For the welfare of those whom he loved.

I think he was raised as a shepherd boy,
And hard work he didn't fear.
The widow, the orphan,
The sick and the lonely
Were remembered while he was here.

And through his wise counsel,
The young people grew.
They knew he cared,
For the gospel he shared,
And he taught them what they should do.

And his wife Jean Willis
In her quiet, sweet way
Helped him too
In whatever he'd do
With love and patience each day.

The talents she's shared;
Lonely spirits she's mended.
The quilts she has sown
Would add just the right tone
For the many babies she's tended.

A gracious hostess who knew
How to welcome and to share;
We'd taste all the goodies
She knew how to prepare,
As we felt her kindness and care.

And their four lovely children
We'll never forget;
Tom, Tammy, Tracy and Thad,
Their leaving makes us sad
We'll miss them so much you can bet.

It's hard to part with someone close to your heart
And may our Heavenly Father above,
Keep you close in his care
No matter where
We pray you'll be blessed with his love.

Elijah McKay Willis

September 24, 1938
February 19, 2023

*Beloved Husband, Father, Pa,
Son, Brother & Friend*

