Life's Journey
Tyree McDaniel

*To plant a seed in one's heart...to root it in love...
To nourish it with time spent together...
Yields a blossom that will flourish forever.*

Tyree McDaniel was born on February 23, 1951, in Globeville, Colorado to his parents, Joe Green and Charlesetta Walker. He was the first born in the family. He was raised surrounded by his brother, Robert and his sister, Terri. He was close to his younger siblings and often took care of them when playing outside and while their grandmother was cooking. He even taught his sister, Terri to read comic books.

Tyree received his early education by graduating from Manuel High School. He enlisted in the United States Army. He was stationed in Fort Dix in New Jersey as well as in Germany. While serving his country, he earned a National Defense Service Medal and a Mechanics Badge. He served with honor and distinction and was honorably discharged.

On October 7, 1969, Tyree married, Sylvia Baldwin in Denver, Colorado. To this union, a daughter, Tonia was born. They enjoyed cooking especially baking bread, and partying. He later wed, Deborah Hobley with this union, he adopted Ebonie, Keondra, Tyree, Devante, and Davanta. Davanta remembers him taking them to work with him, watching WWE, and the Denver Broncos. Keondra remembers his cooking, watching WWE, and making sure their mother took her medications. He also enjoyed listening to old school music. He was later blessed with fifteen grandchildren who all were an additional source of joy and pride in his life. They too shared many happy and memorable moments together. Deborah preceded him in death.

Tyree was no stranger to working. He has worked as a Cook, he worked for the late Daddy Bruce, he worked in Construction, and Custodial Services at University Hospital.

He was hard working, dedicated, and performed his duties with a spirit of excellence. He carried a jovial personality and worked well with his co-workers.

A man of faith and belief in the Lord, he attended Eoangelist Temple in Denver, Colorado.

Tyree was a fun-loving man, who enjoyed life and those he encircled. In his free time, he enjoyed basketball, playing marbles, having a drink, and playing music. His closest friends, Michael Coleman, Gregory Delany, David Wheatfall, and Cecil Smith will miss the many comraderies they shared together and the fact that he was a true and trusted friend. He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful man. To know Tyree was to love him.

He is preceded in death by a son, Tyree McDaniel; his parents; brothers, William T. Thomas and Anthony D. Thomas.

Tyree McDaniel departed this life on January 29, 2022, in Denver, Colorado. Those left to cherish his memory and mourn his loss include 2 sons, Davanta D. (Chanell M.) McDaniel and Davante Chavez; 2 daughters, Ebonie C. McDaniel and Keondra N. McDaniel; 2 brothers, Robert Davidson and Anthony Thomas; 1 sister, Terri E. (James) Murrell; 15 grandchildren; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.

Hero

*You held my hand when I was small
You caught me when I fell
You are the hero of my childhood
And my later years as well
And every time I think of you
My heart still fills with pride
Though I will always miss you
Dad
I know you're by my side
In laughter and in sorrow
In sunshine and in rain
I know you're watching over me
Until we meet again.*
