Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free

Family & Friends

I could not stay another day
 To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
 Tasks left undone must stay that way
 I found that peace at the close of day.

If my parting has left a void
 Then fill it with remembered joy.
 A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss
 Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow
 I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
 My life's been full, I savored much
 Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seemed all too brief
 Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
 Lift up your hearts and peace to thee
 God wanted me now; He set me free.

~ Reflections of Her Life ~

Nancy E. Chism Gilmore

Nancy E. Chism Gilmore was born September 25, 1943, to the union of LeRoy and Gladys Chism in Bates County, Missouri. She was the 3rd of seven (7) children (3 girls, 4 boys). She professed her faith in Christ at an early age while attending church in Tipton, Bunceton and Sedaila, Missouri and was a lifelong Baptist. Her family relocated to Kansas City where Nancy attended RT Cole school.

In 1958 she married D.J. Gilmore and to this union one child was born. Nancy was a member of Canaan Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Pastor RB Poe. Her last membership was at Cleveland Ave Baptist Church where she rededicated her faith under Pastor Price Ellis and Pastor Harrison Jackson. She was a faithful member of the Kitchen Ministry where her culinary skills were widely appreciated by the church family.

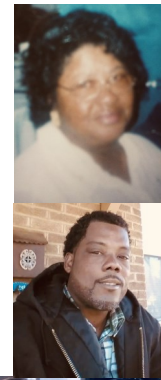

At a young age Nancy began her journey in the culinary industry, working at several restaurants in Kansas City including Patches and The Oyster Bay. She advanced to chef at the Hereford House and Truman Hospital cafeteria. For 28 years she was an executive chef and manager of the State building's cafeteria.

Nancy enjoyed fishing, shooting pool, and listening to her church music while she lovingly prepared legendary dishes for her family/friends. And nobody was a bigger KC Chiefs fan! Her heart was huge and her compassion boundless not only for loved ones but for those in need.

Nancy departed this life on Wednesday, January 19, 2022 at Research Medical Center. She was preceded in death by her parents, grandparents, a niece, 2 brothers and 3 nephews.

Nancy leaves to mourn her passing her only child, Anna M Gilmore; two (2) sisters, Mary Woods and Loretta Chism; one (1) brother, Edward E Chism (Maria); a special niece, Margaret Ann Edwards; Nancy's special friend, Albert Criswell, and a host of nephews, nieces, cousins, and friends.

Rest well Nancy; thy good and faithful servant.
