Picture me as I was,
Full of life and love.
Although not with you now,
I'm watching from above.
I know how much you miss me,
And I miss you too.
It was my time to leave,
As each of us must do.
Although not in your arms,
I'm always in your heart.
The precious love we shared,
Means we're never far apart.

- OBITUARY -

Roy Lee Williams, Sr.

the son of Lena Mae Thomas Knight, was born August 17, 1957 in Nash County, North Carolina. His earthly life ended on September 8, 2022 as he was called to his eternal life. Along with his mother, he was preceded in death by his brother, Douglas Williams. Roy was reared in Edgecombe County, North Carolina. He received his education from the Edgecombe County Public School System where he attended Edgecombe High School in Tarboro, NC. A dedicated and resourceful worker, Roy was a gifted auto mechanic. He also worked for Bruce Foods, and Tobacco Processors in Wilson, NC and Triple I Industrial Company in Elm City, NC.

Loving, kind, and devoted, Roy enjoyed life and the many pleasures he received from family, friends, and his work. A devoted father, grandfather, brother, and friend. He delighted in the special times shared with each one. A classy man, Roy loved to look sharpe, dress in the latest fashions and wear his hat. He was very outgoing and always showed himself friendly. His favorite past times were playing pool or playing cards, riding his motorcycle, and keeping his Volkswagen washed and in order. To know Roy was to love him. He was willing to give of his time, talent, and resources to those in need. A dear beloved heart, gone too soon, and will always be remember with joy and thankfulness.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his four sons, Kenneth Rae Horne of Rocky Mount, NC; Erik Mercer (Keisa) of Greenville, NC; Roy Lee Williams, Jr. of Rocky Mount, NC, and Douglas Williams of Charlotte, NC; four brothers, Danny Williams of Greensboro, NC, Marty Thomas of High Point, NC, Jessie Thomas (Sharon) of Durham, NC, and Ronald Thomas (Sherri) of Oak Ridge, NC; ten grandchildren; a host of other relatives and friends.
