

EUGENE JACKSON COOP

Eugene Jackson Coop, 83 of Smiths Grove entered into rest on October 13, 2011 at his residence after a lengthy illness.

Eugene was born on March 14, 1928 in Cumberland County, KY to Dullie Key and McKinley Coop. He was preceded in death by a brother James R Coop of Barren County, a sister Glendola Swain of Paducah, his parents, a niece and nephew.

He was a graduate of North Warren High School, Coyne Electrical School, Chicago, IL and Western Kentucky State College (WKU) where he majored in Agriculture. He was a farmer, Master Electrician and contractor. Eugene was an active member of the Three Forks Church of Christ where he served as elder for thirty-five years. He was also a veteran who served in the U.S. Army during the Korean War.

Visitation will be Saturday 3:00-8:00 p.m. at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Smiths Grove Chapel with a private graveside service.

He is survived by his wife, Maxine Littrell Coop of sixty-three years, three daughters: Alice Benham (John), Jane Mutterl (John) and Mary Loveall all of Smiths Grove; three grandsons: Blake Taylor (Christy), Justin Mutter, and Beau Taylor; and three great grandchildren: Tyler, Mason and Ava Taylor. He is also survived by two brothers: Archie Coop of Lake City, FL and Larry Coop of Bowling Green and one sister Dorothy Matthews of Owensboro

Send Condolences