

Remembered & Loved

Marian Hohbein

1929 ~ 2021

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me,*

*I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free.*

*Miss me a little, but not too long,
and not with your head bowed low.*

*Remember the love that we once shared,
miss me, but let me go.*

*For this journey we all must take,
and each must go alone.*

*It's all part of the Master's plan,
a step on the road to home.*

*When you are lonely and sick of heart,
go to the friends we know.*

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me, but let me go.

Marian Hohbein, 91, of Mandan, died February 8, 2021 at Sanford Health in Bismarck surrounded by her loving family.

Marian was born September 20, 1929 to Fred & Antonia (Hoger) Wolf. She grew up on the family farm at Sweetbriar, ND, attending school at Sweetbriar and graduating from New Salem High School. Marian married Raymond Sam Hohbein on June 16, 1949. Two of Marian's sisters married two of Raymond's brothers, creating a close intermingling of the Wolf and Hohbein families, much like her parents who each had three siblings married to the other family's three siblings.

Upon marriage, Marian and Ray moved into the top floor of the Northern Pacific train depot in Judson, ND where her red Santa Claus figurine placed in a window stopped a passenger train. She moved with her husband as his work with the railroad took them to the locations of Savage, MT, Medora, Dickinson, and later to Mandan in 1969. Marian worked as a retail clerk at various stores including S&L Department Store in Dickinson, Ben's Fairway, Bill's Super Valu, and Central Market in Mandan.

Marian spent many hours crocheting, knitting, and sewing clothes and quilts. She loved to bowl and play pinochle and other games with family and friends. Marian was central to the family's continuation of traditions surrounding holidays and family gatherings. She looked forward to distributing May Day baskets, Christmas Eve with Santa, and Easter when the Easter Bunny would paint sleeping children's toes to let them know that Easter eggs and baskets had been hidden. Marian became a resident of the Elm Crest Manor in New Salem in 2018.

Marian is survived by her daughter, Bev (Tom) Krous; sons, Allen "Butch" (Lynn) Hohbein, Randy (Cheryl) Hohbein; daughter-in-law, Julie Hohbein; son, Kim (Lorene) Hohbein, all of Bismarck and Mandan; 10 grandchildren; 9 step-grandchildren; 19 great grandchildren; 10 step-great grandchildren; one sister, Esther (Edger) Hoesel of New Salem; three sisters-in-law, Rosie Wolf of Sweetbriar, Della Haddad of Las Vegas, NV, and Lynda Hohbein, of Seattle, WA.

Marian was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Ray; infant son, Bruce; son, Ricky; grandson, Travis Hohbein; sisters, Helen Sicble, Alice Hohbein, and Edna Hohbein; and brother, Herman Wolf.

Memorials are preferred to First Lutheran Church of Mandan.
